Anxiety For Br. Nationals In Madrid

Rival Mahasabha In Offing

Sanatanist-Malaviya Group Coalition

Hindu Leadership At Parting Of Ways?

LAHORE, October 22.

Dr. Kurtkoti made a statement at the open session of the Mahasabha to-day with regard to the observations in his Presidential Address which led to yesterday's secession of the Sanatanists. Dr. Kurtkoti explained that the views expressed therein were personal and did not commit the Mahasabha.

A Parallel Mahasabha?

It is, however, reported that the Sanatanist and Nationalist Hindus of the Malaviya group intend to establish a parallel Mahasabha. The "Daily Herald" says that Mr. Radhakant Malaviya and Pandit Nekiram Sharma are taking the lead in this connection.

The Sanatanists and also the Malaviya U. P. Group were absent to-day.

In the evening, the Mahasabha passed five resolutions, of which the most important were as follows:—

ATTACK ON HINDU CULTURE

(1) The Sabha condemned the anti-Hindi Gurmukhi circular in the North West Frontier as a direct attack on the language and culture of Hindu and Sikh minorities in the Frontier and decided that a deputation of the Sabha together with Sikh leaders should wait on the Viceroy in this connection.

REMOVE UNTOUCHABILITY

(2) The Sabha reiterated the resolution passed at the Poona session on the subject of the removal of untouchability and called on Hindus all over India to carry that resolution into effect with a view to preserving the integrity of the Hindu society. The Sabha reaffirmed the previous resolutions in favour of giving equal access to all Hindus irrespective of caste and creed to all public amenities and institutions such as schools, wells, tanks, ghats, hotels, roads, parks, dharamshalas and public places of worship.

NO CASTE DISTINCTIONS

The Sabha further reaffirmed its faith that untouchability is not regarded as a part of the Hindu religious or social system. The Sabha recommended to Hindus the abolition of all distinctions in Hindu society based on birth or caste in the spheres of public, social or political life, as they are out of place in the present age.

A feature of the session was the enthusiasm with which the Sikhs participated in it.

SIKH ADDRESS TO KURTKOTI.

The Gursingh Sabha presented an Address to Dr. Kurtkoti at the open session stating that if Harijans wished to stay where they were well and good; otherwise, Dr. Kurtkoti should use his good offices to see that Harijans did not go to an alien religion but embraced Sikhism.—A.P.

NEW MAHASABHA

Plans To Create It On All-India Basis

LAHORE, Oct. 22.

It is understood that the organisers of the new Mahasabha are doing their utmost to create it on an All-India basis and propose to make Jagatguru Shankaracharya of Sharda Pith, Kashmir, its president.

At the same time, the existing Hindu Mahasabha, it is understood, may undergo drastic changes in its constitution, centralising power into the hands of a cabinet with seven years' life and a working president with wide discriminatory powers.

REPUGNANT TO HINDU SASTRAS.

The Working Committee of the Sanatandharma Pratinidhisabha passed a resolution repudiating Dr. Kurtkoti's Presidential remarks as repugnant to the Hindu Shastras and declaring that the present session does not represent the views of Sanatan Dharmis who constitute more than 90 per cent of the Hindu population. The secessionist leaders have also made a similar statement declaring no confidence in Dr. Kurtkoti.

HARIJAN UPLIFT.

All the resolutions in to-day's session were passed unanimously.

Speaking on the untouchability resolution Mr. Rajbhoj, depressed class leaders from Poona, declared that some constructive work for the uplift of the Harijans would be far more welcome than such resolutions and sympathies.—A.P.

ALLAHABAD'S WELCOME TO FRONTIER GANDHI

Civic Address Will Be Presented To-day

ALLAHABAD, Oct. 22.

Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan, who arrived at Allahabad yesterday will be presented a welcome address to-morrow by the Allahabad Municipal Board, which decided the same at its recent meeting.

In order to welcome Abdul Ghaffar Khan, a public meeting of the citizens of Allahabad will be held to-morrow evening under the auspices of the Town Congress Committee and presided by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.—United Press

VOTE FOR CONGRESS CANDIDATES

Sardar Patel's Appeal To Madras Rate-payers

ALLAHABAD, Oct. 22.

The A.I.C.C. office communicates to the press the following telegram which Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel has sent to Mr. S. Satyamurthi, M.L.A.:—

"The sincerity of the people of Madras, who only recently gave such royal reception to the Congress President, will be tested on October 26, when the Corporation Election will take place. I hope, they will prove their worth by voting solidly for the Congress candidates."—United Press.

Embassy's Measures Against Air Raids

IN DEFENCE OF BR. SHIPPING

Move In Two Dominions To Give Preference To Mother Country

LONDON, Oct. 22.

Two Dominions to-day took steps in defence of British shipping.

The New Zealand House of Representatives gave the first reading to the Protection of British Shipping Bill, by which the New Zealand Government assume powers to impose restrictions and prohibitions against foreign countries which discriminate against British shipping. The Minister of Marine, Mr. Fraser, explained that the United States Government had been acquainted with the terms of the Bill and an undertaking had been given that the measure would not operate until the United States Government had an opportunity of making suggestions.

In Canberra, the Minister of Commerce, Mr. Page, announced that the Federal Cabinet had approved the main principles of a Bill to restrict American ships engaging in local passenger trade between New Zealand and Australia and also to deal with the general question of competition with British shipping on the Pacific by other foreign companies. The Commonwealth Government's legislation will be similar to New Zealand's.—Reuter.

BAN ON JAWAHAR'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Mangalore City Fathers To Protest To Director Of Public Instruction

(From Our Correspondent)

MANGALORE, Oct. 22.

Dr. K. Vittal Shetty, Chairman, presiding Mangalore Municipal Council considered the objection raised by the District Educational Officer to the inclusion of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru's Autobiography in the Municipal library. The councillors expressed resentment at the Officer's objection and resolved to address the Director of Public Instruction in the matter.

MAHATMA OVERWHELMED

Thanks Senders Of Birthday Greetings

WARDHAGANJ, Oct. 22.

Sjt. Mahadev Desai wires to the "United Press":—

Mahatma Gandhi has issued the following statement to the Press:

"As usual I am overwhelmed with messages of birthday greetings. It is impossible for me to send acknowledgments to these kind friends. I, therefore, take this opportunity for thanking them all through the Press for their 550 wishes."

Gandhiji leaves Wardha on the evening of October 23 for Benares where he arrives in the early hours of the morning of October 25. He opens Bharat Mata Mandir that afternoon and leaves on October 26 for Gujerat via Delhi.—United Press.

Will Open Bharat Mata Mandir On Sunday

WARDHA, October 22.

Gandhiji leaves Wardha on the evening of the 23rd for Benares, where he arrives in the early hours of the 25th.

He opens the Bharat Mata Mandir that afternoon and leaves on the 26th for Gujerat via Delhi.—A.P.

Rebels Within 16 Miles Of Capital

LONDON, October 22.

Precautionary measures are being taken in Madrid to protect 200 British Nationals left in the capital in the event of air raids. "Union Jacks" have been painted on the roof of the Embassy and the adjoining building where most of the British residents are staying.

According to the information received in London, there are about 10,000 prisoners and hostages in Madrid including about 1,500 women, many of the latter in pitiful plight with children in arms and no means of support.

The Red Cross are doing their utmost to alleviate their position with the assistance of the British Charge d'Affaires.—Reuter.

HOW NAVALCARNERO FELL

NAVALCARNERO, October 22.

There were six lines of trenches round Navalcarnero, supported with the most highly organised system of defences which the insurgents had yet encountered. It took ten hours of fierce fighting to overcome the stronghold.

The second and third lines especially offered stubborn resistance being manned by picked Government troops. While the Foreign Legion and Moors were fighting had to hand, the Government artillery continually bombarded the insurgents in the rear.

The defences are stated to be the best before the Capital which is now only 16 miles distant.—Reuter.

Yamin Khan Says Andaman Prisoners Require More Facilities

CALCUTTA, Oct. 22.

Raizada Hansraj and Sir Yamin Khan, two members of the Legislative Assembly, who had been deputed by the Home Department of the Government of India to study the conditions in which the convicts generally and the political and terrorist prisoners in particular, are kept, returned to Calcutta this morning.

In the course of talks with the press representatives Sir Yamin Khan dwelt on the various amenities provided by the Government for the comfort of the prisoners. He also testified to the fact, as stated by Sir Henry Craik on the floor of the Assembly, that from the sanitary point of view the Andamans were much better now than what they were a decade or two before.

WANTED MORE FACILITIES.

He, however, remarked that there were some matters such as better facilities for modern games in respect of which the Penal Settlement authorities might relax the standing rules to some extent and meet the grievances of the young prisoners.

The same remarks would, according to him, also apply to the facilities for reading books, newspapers and other periodicals, the absence of which was keenly felt by the political prisoners most of whom were drawn from the educated middle classes.

Raizada Hansraj said that he would not make any public statement before discussing the whole matter with Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru and Babu Rajendra Prasad, who is the President of the Political Prisoners' Relief Committee.—United Press.

PAMPER NO PARTY IN PALESTINE

Winterton's Advice To British Govt. From Lesson Of India

(From Our Correspondent).

ALLAHABAD, Oct. 22.

The London correspondent of a local paper writes that in a recent letter appearing in "Times" Lord Winterton draws a comparison between the present state existing in Palestine between the Jews and Arabs and the conditions that arose in India during the worst periods of Hindu-Muslim tension. He points out at no time was there more than 68,000 British troops in India, who with their comrades in Indian Army, had to assist the police to keep peace in British India with its 280,000,000 of inhabitants. Yet in Palestine to-day with a population of over 1,000,000 it requires nearly 25,000 of our army to prevent one section of the community cutting the throats of the other.

Lord Winterton ends his letter by saying such a position should never be allowed to recur and that it can only be prevented by insistence of responsible British public opinion that the two sides shall come together and that neither will be favoured by British Government or Parliament to the injury of the other.

Deportations To Ensure Peace

Round Up Of Bad Characters

Return Of Confidence Leads To Resumption Of Business

BOMBAY, Thursday.

Except for two very minor incidents to-day, in which two Hindus were assaulted—one of them by Hindus, who mistook their victim for a Muslim,—there was general peace and harmony in the City.

In fact all the shops in the various sections were open and brisk business was being transacted. Tram cars and buses were carrying their full loads without any kind of molestation from either community.

The work at the Sabha Mandap is proceeding apace without causing the least excitement and now one wonders what really was the cause for an upheaval, which cost the City so many valuable lives.

Externing Undesirables

The police are busily engaged not only in rounding up the undesirable element in the City, but also in dealing with the all-important question at the moment of externing those who are a menace to the well-being and peace of the City. It was only natural when the riots broke out that on the resources at the command of the City Police Force were concentrated on suppressing the orgy of bloodshed, incendiarism and looting which spread through the city like a spark setting ablaze a cotton godown and there was no time for the police to divert their attention to combing the city for Goondas.

The moment there was a lull in the rioting the City Police concentrated upon the question of rounding up the Mawalis and the damaged characters and known Dadas in the storm centres which contributed a great deal to the return of normal conditions.

Mr. Butler's Work

It is no secret that the Police adopted the most stringent methods at their disposal on this occasion to suppress the riots and found them more effective than the parleys which prolonged the riots in 1932.

Mr. J. W. Rowlands, Commissioner of Police had his hands full on this occasion granting various interviews to communal leaders who were seeking to bring about an amicable settlement, but he had taken care to entrust the bulk of the arrangements for dealing with the riots itself to a trusted and experienced lieutenant Mr. H. E. Butler.

Those who have had an opportunity of closely watching the incidents of the past six days will acknowledge that this Officer, with the co-operation of the other Deputy Commissioners and Officers and the constabulary of the City Police Force has handled the situation which arose with admirable tact, if unsparing severity.

It is stated that Mr. H. E. Butler is now to be transferred to Ahmedabad and if that is true, it is a thousand pities that the City should at this critical juncture be deprived of his experience and skilled methods of dealing with eventualities of the type which caused so much concern.

To-day the Commissioner of Police, with Mr. Butler, visited the Nagpada Police Station and there examined the cases of the large number of persons rounded up from Lambi Building and also those arrested last night with loot in their possession.

It is not possible in all cases to bring home charges to the persons in custody but as a preventive measure the Commissioner has ordered the externment of a fairly large number of persons who are definitely regarded as a danger to the city.

ROUND UP CONTINUES

The rounding up of undesirable persons and 'mawalis' continued on Thursday.

The Princess Street police arrested 21 persons in the Girgaum, Kalbadevi and Bhuleshwar areas, some of whom were bad characters and others were arrested in connection with the rioting, looting and arson.

The Tardeo Road police under Rao Saheb D. V. Karnik, Superintendent, and Inspector Waddell rounded up 17 persons, whose presence has caused considerable panic to the residents of the locality.

The Byculla police arrested ten persons in the early hours of Thursday for breach of the Curfew Order and three persons on Thursday for carrying lethal weapons.

THREE MORE ARRESTS.

Three persons were taken into custody by the Nagpada Police on Thursday night as they were suspected to be dangerous characters.

SIR Md. YAKUB'S INTERVIEW

Sir Currimbhoy's Statement

Sir Currimbhoy Ibrahim, Chairman of the Muslim Peace and Relief Committee, has issued the following statement:—

We have read with surprise the interview of Sir Mahomed Yakub. We do not know from what source Sir Mahomed Yakub has obtained the information on which he has made the statement. Surely anyone who genuinely attempts to take any interest in the matter should be aware that both the Hindus as well as Muslims have formed committees of important persons of the respective communities and, if reliable information is really desired, it ought to be obtained from them. So far as we know, Sir Mahomed Yakub has not met the Muslim Peace Committee. It appears Sir Mahomed Yakub had come down to Bombay and has taken the opportunity of making a statement for his own objectives which is regrettable in the present situation. It appears to be one which is likely to create misunderstanding. The Muslim Peace Committee has been having negotiations with both the Government and the Hindu leaders and it is also a well-known fact that the matter in question having a good deal to do with religious sentiments and tenets. It is, therefore, thought prudent to have eminent and sober religious point of view. It is with this object that a couple of well-known and eminent personages, who love religion and peace, have been requested to kindly come down to help us in our endeavours for finding out fair and peaceful solution. To say that the local Muslim leaders are unable to do anything and to say that outside leaders need not be invited, may we ask on what authority has Sir Mahomed Yakub been able to lay the charge against the Muslims in this res-

Posts And Telegraphs Dept. In Exhibitions

Educating Public About Size And Extent Of Its Activities

SIMLA, Oct. 22.

Experiments have recently been made by the Posts and Telegraphs Department to bring home to the public the size and extent of its activities.

In addition to effective advertisements in newspapers, the Department has begun to participate in exhibitions, and reports now received show that this step has proved most popular.

Exhibitions at which the Department has organised stalls during the last twelve months were those at Mysore, Patna and Delhi. On each occasion the Department's stall was awarded the gold medal for being the best-arranged and most popular.

AT MYSORE.

Mysore's Dusserah exhibition was the first exhibition in which the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department has ever taken part in recent years. It was estimated that over a lakh of people visited the exhibition, practically all of whom spent some time at the Posts and Telegraphs' stall.

At each of the exhibitions all kinds of models and apparatus representing the different activities of the Department were on view. An exhibit, which attracted a lot of attention, was one showing the progress in the carrying of mail,—first the Indian runner, then the mail-cart, then the highly equipped special railway mail van and Post Office lorry, and finally, the aeroplane. Another ingenious model showed how mail was carried from one centre to another, utilizing the railway, a bullock-cart, an overhead wire ropeway and finally a runner.

APPARATUS ON VIEW.

All kinds of telegraphic and telephone apparatus were on show, with their interiors displayed, so that the mechanical-minded could examine them at leisure. In addition, there were various types of cables with the numerous wires of which they consist projecting in all directions, so that the public could gain an idea of the tremendous amount of material in an ordinary post office cable.

There are many facilities in the Post Office of which the ordinary public know very little. These were brought out at each of the exhibitions. For example, the identity card, which enables anyone from the South of India to prove his identity in the North of India—a form of internal passport—attracted a lot of attention. Again, the Neopost Franking Machine, which does away with the necessity for postage stamps, and is invaluable to business firms who have hundreds of letters to dispatch daily, proved a fascinating exhibit.

TALKING PICTURES.

One of the most popular features of the Posts and Telegraphs Exhibition was a programme of talking pictures, which gave a humorous turn to Post Offices work, apart from giving a first class picture of the carriage of mails by air and other aspects of the Department's enterprises.

Various kinds of stamps used on money orders to prevent fraud, models illustrating all kinds of activities, a model sub-Post Office, graphs showing the growth of activities, a model Bank branch, old postage and telegraphs stamps, examples of all kinds of apparatus—all these have gone to make these experimental exhibitions by the Posts and Telegraphs Department extremely popular, so much so that there is no doubt that their appearance at future exhibitions will be looked for with great interest.—United Press.

Modish Complexions

Yes, complexions are worn au naturelle—but this does not mean that you display them in their morning glory, fresh from the bath tub! Make-Up is less artificial, follows natural colouring and aims to achieve a natural effect of youthful loveliness. So away with sallow skins, banish your blatant rouges and lipsticks, you've got to look young and beautiful. And how are you to do it? Get an ounce or two of Mercolized Wax from your chemist and apply a little nightly. While you sleep this oxygenated wax will gently and imperceptibly absorb the discoloured outer skin with its wrinkles and blemishes, revealing the fresh, flawless complexion now concealed beneath. Try a ten-day treatment if you would see your complexion at its best.

Mercolized Wax contains no animal fat.

DEPORTATION FOR RIOT ACCUSED?

"Making Their And Our Lives Safe", Says Magistrate

BOMBAY, Thursday.

Sentences of stripes, fine and imprisonment were imposed for contravening the Police Commissioner's order banning carrying of lethal weapons and looting and theft, on twelve more persons, today, by Mr. Oscar H. Brown, Presidency Magistrate, Mazagaon, specially deputed to try cases in connection with the communal rioting in the City.

More than a dozen knives were again confiscated.

When two accused arrested in the general round-up in the City applied for lessening the bail amount, the Magistrate remarked that he was sorry he could not do so.

"I understand," he stated, "Mr. Butler, the Deputy Commissioner is investigating several cases and there may be a series of deportations."

"Mr Butler," he added, "will, perhaps, find a pleasant place for them and make their and our lives safe."

RESIDENCE LOOTED.

In connection with the looting of a Hindu residence at Nishanpada Road where the occupants of the house had deserted the place in view of the riots, Devsi Jairam was stated to have picked up clothes from room to rooms.

He was charged with having committed three thefts and sentenced to an aggregate term of six months' R. I. and ten stripes.

"I cannot take leniently the case of a man who has a lust for plunder and burgling the house of a member of his own community, taking advantage of the conditions prevailing in the city," observed the Magistrate, in passing the sentence.

PATHANS WITH KNIVES.

Three Pathans found in possession of knives were arrested by the Railway Police and put up before the Magistrate.

The accused said that they were coming from Santa Cruz. One of the Pathans found in possession of a sling and a clasp knife, put forth the plea that the sling was used for shooting birds at Santa Cruz and that he borrowed the knife for his master.

"It is difficult to get over the presumption that the sling was brought to Bombay for a sneakish purpose," said the Magistrate, and accordingly sentenced each of them to one month's R. I.

MORE KNIFE POSSESSORS.

A Muslim weaver and a Sikh, engaged in building operations, found in possession of a knife each, were ordered to be fined Rs. 100 each or in default to undergo one week's R. I.

Another Hindu arrested at Lamington Road with a knife in his hand, stated that he needed the knife to cut pears for his master's children. He was fined Rs. 50 or in default to undergo one week's R.I.

A tailor and a motor cleaner arrested at Madanpura with three knives in their possession were sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 100 each or in default to undergo one week's R. I.

STRIPE FOR HOUSE-BREAKER.

A Muslim, arrested at Nishanpada Road, was sentenced to be given eight stripes.

117 persons arrested in the general round-up were ordered to be released on bail in the sum of Rs. 500 each at Arthur Road jail yesterday, while three others were enlarged on similar bail at Byculla.

RUSH FOR CONGRESS PUBLICATIONS

AVAILABLE BOOKS WILL BE SUPPLIED IN CONCESSION CONSIGNMENT

The following statement has been issued by Sjt. Acharya J. B. Kripalani, General Secretary, All-India Congress Committee:—

Owing to large demands on our publications consequent on our offer to supply them at a nominal price of Rs. 5 to Congress Committees and public libraries, stocks of some of them have been exhausted. We are unable, therefore, to include in our five-rupee parcel, all the books mentioned in the first announcement. We can still send the following books and pamphlets. The price of these will, however, continue to be the same as before, as the actual price will still be many times more than Rs. 5. We, therefore, hope that all those who have sent their orders with money, will agree to accept these reduced parcels. Those, however, who will like to have their money back, will please inform this office accordingly.

In the list given below it will be seen that a stock of a few publications is limited in number. Some parcels, therefore, will not contain these publications as well.

BOOKS AVAILABLE

English Publications: Dr. Pattabhi Sitaramayya's History of the Congress, Dr. Ahmad's Agrarian Problem in India, Assam Opium Enquiry Report (limited copies), Congress Jubilee Brochures—10 volumes (limited copies), Supplementary Report to the Nehru Committee's Report, Summary of Proceedings of All Parties Conference, All Parties Convention Report, National Demand, Dominion Status and Indian States, Poona Statements, General Secretary's Report—November 1934 to March 1936, Indian National Congress: 1927, 1929 and 1934-36, Constitution of I. N. C. 1936, Congress Bulletins: No. 2 of 1935 and No. 1 of 1936, Decalogue of Public Debt Committee Report and Resolutions of Madras, Karachi and Lucknow Congress.

Urdu Publications: Resolutions of Karachi Congress (limited copies), Resolutions of Calcutta Congress and Supplementary Report to the Nehru Committee's Report (limited copies).

Due to the heavy rush of orders, some delay in despatching the parcels is inevitable. I hope, therefore, that those who have sent the amount will not mind any such delay.

The accused was remanded into Police custody for seven days, when he was produced before the Dadar Presidency Magistrate, to-day.

DR. ERACHSHAW J. HAKIM DEAD

Bombay's Well-Known Unani Physician

The death occurred in Bombay at the age of 77, of Dr. Erachshaw Jamshedji Hakim, a well-known Parsi Unani physician.

Educated at Grant Medical College, Dr. Erachshaw started practice as a 'hakim,' soon established himself in the profession and boasted of a flourishing practice among all classes of Indians.

The Unani system of medicine has been a family tradition in his case. His late brother Dr. Merwanji, who had his dispensary at Dhobi Talao, also made his mark in this line. His son is also following in his father's footsteps.

Dr. Erachshaw was the owner of several estates in Bombay and mofussil.

DOCTORS ADVISE THIS SIMPLE TREATMENT FOR THE DELICATE, PEEVISH CHILD

As every parent knows, good spirits and good temper depend on health. When a child is "difficult"—irritable, disobedient and unhappy—it is nearly always a sign that his system lacks certain essential substances. Proper nourishment builds up his strength and corrects the trouble.

Nothing is more effective for this than SCOTT'S Emulsion, prescribed by doctors for more than sixty years. Besides pure cod liver oil, rich in Vitamins A and D, it contains the salts of calcium and phosphorus which are essential to healthy growth of body and bone. By an exclusive emulsifying process SCOTT'S Emulsion is made pleasant to take and easy to digest: it is actually three times more effective than plain cod liver oil.

Complete in Itself

Unlike plain cod liver oil and other sources of Vitamin D, SCOTT'S Emulsion is a complete tonic in itself: it does not require the addition of calcium or other substances to the diet for full effectiveness. It is as valuable for adults as for children. In all cases of weakness or debility, and for renewing vigour after illness, SCOTT'S Emulsion is recognised as a splendid general tonic. It should also be taken as a safeguard when epidemics are prevalent, since it has a marked effect in strengthening the body's resistance to coughs, colds, influenza and other infections.

SCOTT'S Emulsion

of Pure Cod Liver Oil

IMPORTANT TO PARENTS
SCOTT'S Emulsion as a bone-builder
– is 80 times as effective as butter or fresh milk
– is twice as effective as yolk of egg

TEST CRICKETERS HONOURED

Merchant On Lessons Of Recent Tour

BOMBAY, Thursday.

Last evening a reception was given at a dinner party in the P. J. Hindu Gymkhana Pavilion to the members of the All India Cricket Team who are also members of the Hindu Gymkhana, Mr. L. P. Jai, V. M. Merchant and D. D. Hindlekar, under the auspices of the Merrymakers Club. Mr. L. Amarsingh, who also played in the All India Team in England, being in Bombay, was also invited and was present. Mr. L. P. Jai for some unavoidable reasons could not be present.

Mr. Mohanlal M. Amarsey presided. He in a very eloquent speech said that, although the All-India Team did not come up to the expectations cherished by the Indian public, individually some of them gave a good account of themselves in bowling, batting and other departments of cricket.

Mr. Soondérdas Morarji made some very humorous remarks regarding the game of cricket and dwelt at length on the doings of the trio.

Mr. S. A. Mehta in a short speech eulogised the performance of the above three players in England and said that they provided sufficient inspiration to the budding cricketers of the country.

Mr. Merchant gave a fitting reply on his own behalf as well as on behalf of the two colleagues present.

The recent tour, he said, was both unpleasant and disappointing but the lessons of the tour would make the authorities direct their efforts in the right channels.

THRILLING FOOTBALL FINAL AT AJMER

(From A Correspondent.)

AJMER, Oct. 20.

The final match of the All-India Ogilvie Football Tournament was played yesterday between Friend Union Club (A) Nasirabad and T. Battery, R. A. Nasirabad on the Loco Sports Ground. The ground was besieged by a mammoth gathering of spectators to witness the most thrilling match that Ajmer has seen.

In the first half the T. Battery scored two goals, but in the second the Friend Union equalised the scores.

Ten minutes more were given after the scheduled time when the Friend Union, by scoring a goal won a decisive victory, amidst deafening shouts of applause.

Mr. L. C. L. Griffin, president of the Tournament gave away a large maginficent silver cup to the winners, who jubilantly went in a procession through the streets of the city, accompanied by a band.

VISIT OF FOREIGN TENNIS PLAYERS

CALCUTTA, Oct. 20.

Information has reached Calcutta from all parts of India that the country's leading players intend to compete in the East India championships to be played at Woodburn Park, Calcutta, during the Christmas holidays. Besides all the ranked men players, it is likely that Madan Mohan, who has just been transferred to Khargpur again from Nainpur, B. Rachappa, Ranbir Singh, Sham Sher Singh, C. W. Beatty, H. L. Marshall, V. M. Wanarse, Jugal Kishore, Ahmed Hussain and many others will take part.

A. Stedman and C. E. Malfroy are expected in Bombay on December 8. Gentien is coming on an earlier steamer and will probably be in Bombay on December 3. Duplaix, who is coming out as the guest of Prince Madan Singh of Cutch, is leaving Marseilles about November 1. Duplaix will partner either Prince Madan Singh or Gentien in the championships.—

understands it. We shall discuss and decide it in the Congress at the right moment. He is not going to allow, and I am not going to allow any difference on this point between us, to be exploited by our enemies.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

I should like to end on a note which is struck in all his speeches. To us of the present generation in India, it is a great opportunity that we should be engaged in a struggle for the political and the economic freedom of the 350 millions of God's creatures. We must use every endeavour on our part to achieve that freedom. That freedom will come not by mere enthusiasm or by mere meetings, although they are very valuable. It will come by the determination of our people to transmute all this enthusiasm into constructive and effective action, I, therefore, sincerely trust and hope that, as a result of the Congress President's visit, and in spite of the resources of its enemies in the Province, the Congress will become stronger and stronger, will emerge triumphant in the ensuing elections, will face and solve big issues which are before the country, and will bring the day, nearer of India's freedom. When that day comes is more than one can say. But it ought to come and it will come early if we work hard. When it comes, those who live in a free India will always have reason to remember with gratitude and affection the services of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. Tamil Nadu will certainly long remember him with affection and gratitude."—A. P.

20 LAKHS PEOPLE HEARD HIM

MADRAS (By Mail.)

The Manager, Tamil Nadu Congress writes:—

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, President, Indian National Congress arrived in Madras by the Grand Trunk Express on the 5th evening and left Madras on the 18th morning by the same train. From the 5th evening, up till the 18th morning, covering about 12 full days the Congress President has toured the entire 14 districts of Tamil Nadu.

The Congress President, accompanied by Mr. S. Satyamurti, the President of our committee and Mr. Kamaraj, Secretary, on the whole covered 1,797 miles of which the party has covered 1,627 miles by car alone. The Congress President addressed in all 203 meetings and received 3,907 addresses including the District Boards and Municipalities. Engagements for the day began at 7 a.m. and ended at 1 a.m. It is estimated that about 20 lakhs of people heard him directly.—A. P.

FIRE IN WOOD DEPOT AT BYCULLA

BOMBAY: Thursday.

A fire which might have proved disastrous was arrested by the timely and prompt action of the Fire Brigade early this morning.

The fire broke out in a timber depot, belonging to Mr. Abdul Gani, situated at Nareilwadi, Byculla. A passer-by seeing smoke issuing from the depot, gave the alarm to the Fire Brigade Station at Byculla and within a few minutes engines from Byculla, Babula Tank and Mandvi were on the spot.

The engines played their hoses and brought the fire under control within 15 minutes. The cause of the outbreak is not known. The damage is estimated at a few thousand rupees.

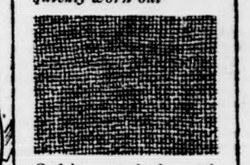
This is why SUNLIGHT SOAP saves clothes

Fabric washed with cheap harsh soap: hard rubbing was necessary, and so the fabric was quickly worn out



Safely washed with Sunlight's "extra soapy" suds, the delicate threads are undamaged.

When Sunlight Soap is used, the "extra soapy" suds draw the dirt out of the fabric: there is no need for harmful rubbing, and so the delicate threads of fabrics are left undamaged. Your clothes last much longer when you use Sunlight Soap. These two illustrations of actual photographs (enlarged many times) show you how fabrics look after washing by unsuitable methods and after washing with Sunlight Soap.

MISFORTUNE TO LOSE HIM

Late Sir Lallubhai Lived Life Of Plain Living And High Thinking

(From A Correspondent)

BHAVNAGAR (By Mail).

A condolence meeting of the Vadnagara Bhavnagar Nagar community to which the late Sir Lallubhai Samaldas belonged was held on the 18th instant. Mr. Dinkerrai Desai presided. The following resolution was passed:

"The Bhavnagar Vadnagar Nagar community has learnt with deep sorrow of the sad demise of Sir Lallubhai Samaldas Mehta and places on record its sense of the great void and irreparable loss which his death has caused to the whole community.

The deceased was a scion of an ancient and noble family of Bhavnagar who helped in various ways during his life time our brothers who went to Bombay in search of employment. To them he was an oasis in the arid desert of unemployment. He was a distinguished citizen of India, a great economist, financier and Industrialist who brought to bear his ripe experience and deep study and reflection in constructively arriving at the solution of many burning topics of the day.

A merchant and Industrialist ennobled by deep culture and erudition, a man of plain living and high thinking who gave sound advice to many a rising young man ungrudgingly, a man of cheerful temper and geniality—he contributed in no mean measure to the success of various undertakings of great and lasting benefit to India.

It is really a misfortune to lose him when his need was greatest to the members of the community.

Mr. Gunvantrai G. Desai began by impressing on the minds of his hearers the necessity of sincerity in life by saying that hollow words without the essence of faith behind them are worse than useless; and then proceeded to remind the audience to imitate and emulate him as an ideal father, brother, husband and friend. He also drew the attention to one special characteristic of the worthy deceased, namely, his habit of always following the Golden Middle Path preached by Lord Buddha. This, the speaker said, was the real secret of his success in life. Whatever field he entered, he made his own by virtue of his wonderful intellect.

Family Thanks For Messagees Of Sympathy

Mr. Vaikunth L. Mehta and other members of the family of the late Sir Lalubhai Samaldas desire to convey their gratitude to all friends, who have been good enough to send messages of sympathy; especially to friends to whom through inadvertence, they have not been able to reply individually.

GREAT LOSS TO COMMERCIAL COMMUNITY

Maharashtra Chamber's Resolution On Sir Lalubhai's Death

The Committee of Maharashtra Chamber of Commerce think that in the death of Sir Lalubhai the commercial and industrial community of Bombay has suffered a great loss, as a number of commercial and industrial undertakings with which he was connected can no longer have the advantage of his valuable experience. He was a universally loved gentleman of wide reading, rare culture and versatility and his death has really created a void in the public life of Bombay. The Committee offer their heartfelt sympathies and condolences to the members of Sir Lalubhai's family.

A Tribute To Late Sir Lalubhai Samaldas

(From A Correspondent)

Glowing tributes were paid to the great services rendered by the late Sir Lalubhai Samaldas at a condolence meeting held under the auspices of the Bombay Provincial Co-operative Bank Ltd., Tasgaon Branch in its office on the evening of the 20th October under the presidentship of Rao Saheb S. B. Shete.

Mr. B. R. Satyanna moved the condolence resolution that "in the late Sir Lalubhai Samaldas, we have lost the very soul of the co-operative movement, the founder and promoter of banks and several other industrial and commercial concerns, the champion of the poor and the agriculturists, the great industrial magnate, the best citizen, a great social, Swadeshi and political worker."

Another resolution sympathising with the bereavement that has overtaken the family and the country and authorising the president to send copies of the resolution passed, to the bereaved family was carried unanimously.

The resolutions were supported by Messrs. Babasaheb Patil, Vithalrao Shinde, Ramji Patil, R. N. Godbole, B. N. Gaikwad and R. R. Alawani, after paying due respects to the great departed soul and eulogizing his services.

IN AND AROUND — BOMBAY —

From Our Staff Correspondents

End Of The Riots

A week ago this day Bombay city was in the welter of bloodshed, men were stabbed and assaulted without the least mercy and the first day's toll came to nearly 15 dead and 150 injured. Seven days are not a long span in human life, yet they have left sad memories which people of all sections and shades of opinion mourn. Thanks, however, to the prompt action taken by the Government, the situation in the city is well controlled. Badmashes and well-known bad characters have been removed from the scenes of their nefarious activites and have been lodged at a place where they could be well considered quite safe and far from any harm to the public. The military and the police by their vigilant patrol have subdued the riot and what is now required is mutual confidence.

Normal Business Resumed

From Crawford Market to Dadar, (via Mahomedali Road), Pydhoni to Dhobi Talao, Sandhurst Road to Bhendy Bazar, and Foras Road to Byculla Bridge, people are going about their business and, to all intents and purposes, it looks as if normal business life is resumed. Men, women and children are walking about the streets and roads unmolested. Men and women of all communities have patronised the tram and the bus services again to travel from the riot-affected areas. But there is one thing wanting. And that is mutual confidence. In the Muslim localities, the Muslims have opened their shops but Hindus have still kept their shops closed. In the Hindu localities likewise the Muslims have not opened their shops as they have not regained the confidence yet.

Butchers' Example

In this case, the Hindu and Muslim shopkeepers and particularly butchers who occupy the Municipal stalls have set a good example for others who are still panicky to follow suit.

Some of the Muslim butchers in Kamatipura Market and Nul Bazar Market, which is also called Erskine Market, have Hindu servants. Some of the Hindu butchers occupying stalls in these markets have Muslim servants. They work harmoniously. The Muslim butchers in the Kamatiprua Markets have opened their shops through their Hindu servants and Hindu butchers in Nul Bazar Market have opened their shops through Muslim servants and the work is going on smoothly. The fisherwomen in Nul Bazar and Kamatipura markets are escorted by Muslim and Hindu servants, and they are not molested. The Muslim butchers, besides, have agreed among themselves to see that no Hindu is molested in the Nul Bazar market. The vegetable stall-holders, who are Hindus at Nul Bazar, have not opened their shops yet but it is hoped they would do so soon in view of the situation which has very much smoothed down.

In Bhuleshwar market, which is a purely vegetable market the vegetable is lying in heaps as many of the customers have left Bombay or he not stir out of their homes to go to the market.

Roads Cleaned

At Dadar market also tons of vegetable is lying unsold owing to the accumulation of the past two or three days. The butchers who had closed their shops are the first to open their shops and it is hoped all the rest will follow their example. Now confidence is restored between Hindu and the Muslim masters and servants—and mutton is brought from Bandra as usual.

The Health Department of the Bombay Municipality has also suffered for four days. On Thursday, however, about 90 per cent of their staff went to work and all the roads are now found spick and span. Only gullies are not cleansed because this work is done by women who have not yet resumed work. It is hoped they will also return to work in a day or two and the gullies which have been neglected for the last one week will be cleansed.

The situation on the whole is very satisfactory. All that is necessary now is the restoration of mutual confidence.

TALK OF THE SUBURBS

(BY A SUBURBAN MAN.)

Of late I have been receiving many a complaint regarding municipal affairs and it has always been the usual grouse about roads and sanitation but to-day I publish extracts from a letter of a correspondent in Thana.

Thana—[illegible] fair name of a town of [illegible] interest and it is the centre [illegible] District and it is really disgraceful to hear the citizens complain most vehemently about the awful conditions of the gutters.

He continues that though the members go round the wards and see these things for themselves, yet they hardly do anything and thus state of affairs continues from year to year. My correspondent further mentions that every time any one approaches the municipality or makes an application there is always the belated answer that the matter is receiving consideration and in hardly one case out of ten the matter receives an adequate attention the general answer being that there are no funds. Taking all these points into consideration my correspondent finally adds that it is high time the authorities waked up in the interests of the health of the city.

BOMBAY: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1936

END THE DEAD-LOCK

Thanks to the vigilance of the authorities and their determined enforcement of all the measures adopted for suppressing the riots as well as the immense reserves of good sense and inter-communal harmony among the citizens Bombay is experiencing peace again and we hope that in a day or two complete public confidence will be restored so that the city may return to normal civic and business life. The credit for the success with which this riot was dealt with is due to the authorities who, one and all, rose to the full height of their responsibilities with promptitude and determined devotion that compare most favourably with the history of the past and compel deep admiration. We congratulate all concerned on their achievement, and especially the Police force under Mr. Rowlands, who bravely bore the strain of the struggle against forces of lawlessness and inhumanity, and we do hope that measures will be adopted to rid Bombay permanently of those elements who are responsible for the inhuman brutalities that have disgraced the name of Bombay.

Give The Lead

Nor must the Mosque-Mandap dead-lock—the ostensible provocation for the loss of 61 Indian lives, and for injuries to nearly 600 Indians, to say nothing of loss of property—be allowed to continue. And it is more in the hands of Mussalmans than Hindus to end it. Whatever opinion one may hold as to the past, the fact remains that the compromise offered by the Hindus as referred to in Mr. Mathuradas Vissanji's statement is an eminently reasonable one. The Muslim leaders are reported to have been willing to accept it but for uncompromising opposition by a few extremists. We fully appreciate their difficulties inasmuch as they have to contend against formidable forces of blind opposition unchained by fanatical extremists. Nevertheless we see no reason why, in a matter which involves the honour of Islam—whose basic teaching is one of tolerance and amity and whose great Founder always took care to protect the religious rights of non-Muslims,—and on which depends the continuance of the happy relations between Hindus and Muslims which have been the characteristic of Bombay, they should not give a courageous lead by refusing to submit to the extremists.

And The Community Will Follow

Fortunately, the issues having been narrowed down to the question of music and the hours for playing it, they could, and can be, very easily solved. There is no fundamental religious principle involved in playing devotional music near a mosque. To maintain otherwise is patently absurd for the very sufficient reason that thousands of temples and mosques are situated adjacent to each other all over India and observing religious rites without endangering Hinduism or Islam. If a temple and a Juma Masjid have existed in Bombay almost adjoining each other and for years without involving any fundamental principle of Islam, it is, we repeat, absurd, for extremists to be uncompromising in regard to the music at Byculla Mandap and inexcusable on the part of Muslim leaders to surrender to them. The leaders ought to realise that a very grave responsibility lies on their shoulders. Let them boldly broadcast in every Muslim street and house their agreement to the compromise, which is certainly not inconsistent with the spirit of Islam and which will consolidate harmonious relations with Hindus, and make an earnest appeal for its endorsement to their co-religionists who, we have not the slightest doubt, yearn for a peaceful settlement, and we are confident they will receive a most satisfactory response.

The Railway Enquiry

A broad distrust of Indian talent and a disinclination to let Indians share in important decisions affecting administration characterised the income-tax enquiry and the Niemeyer enquiry, which were conducted by so-called experts imported from the United Kingdom. We cannot congratulate the Government of India or the Indian Member in charge of the Railways, on following this reprehensible tradition in the appointment of two British experts to examine Indian railway finances and to suggest methods for securing better financial results. For one thing, the studied omission of any Indian,—quite on a par with the action of Government at the time of the Simon Commission,—is in marked contrast with the professions that Britain is now going to hand over really important powers affecting the destinies of this country into the hands of her people. How British statesmanship has fallen woefully short of expectation in regard to India could not be better illustrated than in the bungling resulting in the appointment of the Railway Committee. A waste of public money on an investigation, which will not satisfy popular opinion and which will leave the work to be re-done not long after, is what we foresee from this egregious error which we feel there is still time to rectify. We are surprised that Government failed to find even a Khan Bahadur or to reward loyal political services of a party man in an unashamed imposition of non-Indian personnel pursuing an important investigation. The enquiry will be futile for two reasons. The Indian railways are managed by railway servants, who have risen from the ranks and who bring to bear on the consideration of their problems even in the highest places no different, or bigger, outlook than a mere railway servant can have. To select two other railway servants from the United Kingdom,—not necessarily from railways which are outstanding financial successes in that country,—is not to bring a new outlook to bear on the examination of the problem but to perpetuate bungling and blundering Railway management at the top has been so jealously kept out of Indian hands that, for a change, it might have been better if Indians were allowed to look into this great enterprise which costs the public a sum running into Rs. 80 crores. No one has suggested that the presence of Indians on the Acworth Committee was not helpful or that it was harmful. If England is going to hand over the affairs to Indians and properly account for all that has been done, it is not right to shut out from the Indian view the affairs of the Indian railways, unless the enquiry is not for investigating railway finances, but for whitewashing the present administration. If Government's intention is genuinely to put the railways on a proper basis, the personnel of the Enquiry Committee, is in our opinion, all wrong. The nation at large must condemn in the strongest terms this marked slight to Indians of all shades of opinion.

The previous investigations in regard to railways, piecemeal as usual and futile, were made by Sir A. Lowes Dickinson and Mr. Pope, and the results were petty tinkering. Now that Sir Otto Niemeyer has found that on railway earnings depends the fate of additional income to all the provinces, and on such additional income depends the fate of all aspirations in all provinces in relation to constructive work by popular ministries in regard to health and education, the appointment of this Committee is an issue which assumes a very great and vital importance. Even the Indian Princes are vitally interested, as no part of their cash contribution can be cancelled until the provinces begin to receive something from the Central Government, and the receipt by the province has been made to depend too much on the financial results of State railways. We cannot help noticing the coincidence that the announcement of the appointment of the Committee came on the day after the Assembly adjourned. Without suggesting anything, we must say that had the Assembly been in session this announcement would have formed the subject-matter of an adjournment, which would have been carried by an overwhelming majority. The absence of Indian businessmen, Indian accountants, Indian engineers, and Indian public men, from North, South, East and West of India and of anybody representing the Indian States, conspicuous. It has its own significance, which is not being lost on the public in India. It certainly does not shed any credit on the Indian Member for Railways. This investigation was asked for by the Federation of Indian Commerce and Industry as well as by European Commerce and others, but the form, in which the Committee has emerged, cannot be too strongly condemned.

The defence by an Anglo-Indian scribe of this alien personnel of the Investigating Committee adds insult to injury. It is contended that because the Indian railways were built out of moneys borrowed from the United Kingdom, therefore, it was right that the affairs of the railways should be examined by experts from the United Kingdom only! This explanation is as unconvincing as it is untrue. The Indian sterling debt stands secured against the revenues of the Central Government and of the provinces in India. Even if the railways were completely destroyed, the taxable capacity of India is mortgaged against this debt and to suggest that the holders of sterling paper in the United Kingdom are directly interested in the welfare of Indian railways is twisting of facts for misleading the Indian public. That companies formed in the United Kingdom, to whom the management of Indian railways has been entrusted, have mismanaged them and have inflated capital accounts in order to get a larger share of revenue for themselves, is an old charge made thirty years ago by Sir Dinshaw Wacha and frequently reiterated by Indians of all shades. That itself would have justified the presence of competent Indians in the Committee of Enquiry, if it was the intention of Government to secure correct findings and to let them be known to the public. We trust the members of the Legislature, when it meets again, will not rest till they have secured the addition of three or four Indians, even if the presence of some independent Indians results in a Minority Report.

FROM ACROSS THE SEAS

Gleanings From The World Press

(By Our London Correspondent.)

Mr. Earl Browder, the Communist candidate for the Presidency of the United States of America, although under arrest to prevent him from speaking in Terre Haute, succeeded on September 30 in outwitting Mr. Yates, the local police chief, who on the previous day had declared "I am not going to allow any member of the Communist party to speak in Terre Haute."

The forbidden speech was, however, broadcast at the scheduled hour by Mr. David Bentall, Mr. Browder's attorney, despite elaborate police precautions to prevent the broadcast. Mr. Bentall was smuggled into a tiny broadcasting booth, where he locked himself in. Mr. Yates was in adjoining room while the broadcast was being delivered, powerless to intervene. The hall where Mr. Browder was to have addressed a Communist meeting was occupied by college footballers, who held a "pep" session.

Status Of Ambassadors' Wives In Japan.

Marshal Graziani's insistence that at the Feast of the Mascal in Addis Ababa the Abyssinians should make their customary offer of flowers not only to the Italian officers but to the Italian women was intended, it is stated, to stress on native minds the importance of woman's position in the white man's civilisation.

No foreign representative has ever been able to persuade the Japanese of this. In Tokio a foreign ambassador presenting his credentials to the Emperor, drives with his suite in Imperial coaches and is saluted by the Imperial Guard But if the ambassador's wife wishes to attend the ceremony, she has to drive behind the humblest male of the ambassador's staff. She is given no Imperial coach, and, when she passed, the Guard stops its salute.

Father's Sacrifice For Spain.

Near Gibralter there is an old town called Tarifa. This town was besieged in the Middle Ages by the Moors, and they captured the son of the Governor, who was called Guzman the Good.

They brought his son before the fortress gates and threatened that if the Governor did not throw down the keys of the gates they would kill his son. The Governor, instead, threw down his dagger for them to kill the lad. They did, and the fortress was saved. As a reward for that, the Catholic Kings conferred upon the town the title of the Most Noble, Enduring and Heroic City of Tarifa. Now the story is told of how the Government troops at Toledo (Spain) captured the commander [illegible] garri-

New Constitution Of U. S. S. R.

Organisation Of Society

(Translated From The Russian By Mr. A. AZIZ AZAD)

I

INTRODUCTION MOSCOW, (By Air Mail).

The Draft Constitution of the Soviet Union, English translation of which is presented below, has been worked out by the Constitutional Committee under the Chairmanship of Joseph Stalin, the wise oriental leader of the Communist movement all the world over.

HEALING CENTURIES OLD SUFFERINGS

This greatest of the great document healing the centuries old sufferings of the human race inhabiting the territory formerly called Russian Empire and now Soviet Union, has already been approved by the Presidium of the Central Executive Committee and is going to be brought for consideration before the Extraordinary Session of the All-Union Congress of Soviets opening its session on November 25, 1936 in Moscow.

THE BEST OF ITS KIND

The Draft Constitution, which is undoubtedly the best of its kind all over the world, has been met with the utmost satisfaction by the people of the U.S.S.R. and also invited huge interest and enthusiasm among the people of other countries. After its approval by the All-Union Congress of Soviets, probably with some slight amendments, it will become the Fundamental Law of the U.S.S.R. and with it put a seal to the Old Era and begin a new and happy era for the most fortunate people, as the people of this country has happened to be.

Organization Of Society

Article 1: The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics is a socialist state of workers and peasants.

Article 2: The Soviets of Toilers' Deputies, which developed and grew strong as a result of the overthrow of the power of the landlords and capitalists and the winning of the dictatorship of the proletariat, constitute the political foundation of the U.S.S.R.

Article 3: All power in the U.S.S.R. belongs to the toilers of town and country as represented by the Soviets of Toilers' Deputies.

Article 4: The socialist system of economy and the socialist ownership of the implements and means of production, firmly established as a result of the liquidation of the capitalist system of economy, the annulment of private property in the implements and means of production, and the abolition of the exploitation of man by man, constitute the economic foundation of the U.S.S.R.

Article 5: Socialist property in the U.S.S.R. has either the form of state property (property of the whole people) or the form of co-operative and collective farm (kolkhoz) property (property of individual collective farms and property of co-operative organizations).

Article 6: The land and all that is beneath it, waters, forests, mills, factories, mines, railways, water and air transport, banks, means of communication, large state-organized agricultural enterprises, such as state farms (sovkhoz), machine and tractor stations, and the like, as well as the principal dwelling fund in the cities and industrial localities, are state property, that is, the property of the whole people.

Article 7: Public enterprises in collective farms and co-operative organizations, with their livestock and implements, products raised or manufactured by the collective farms and co-operative organizations, as well as their public structures, constitute the public, socialist property of the collective farms and co-operative organizations.

Each collective farm household has for its own use a plot of land attached to the house and, as individual property, an auxiliary establishment on the plot, the house, produce animals and poultry, and minor agricultural implements—in accordance with the statutes of the agricultural artel

Article 8: The land occupied by collective farms is secured to them for perpetual use, that is, for ever.

Article 9: Alongside the socialist system of economy, which is the dominant form of economy in the U.S.S.R., the law allows small private farms and other enterprises of individual peasants and home-workers based on their personal labour and precluding the exploitation of the labour of others.

Article 10: The personal property of citizens in their income from work and in their savings, in their dwelling house and auxiliary household economy, domestic articles and utensils as well as objects of personal use and comfort is protected by law.

Article 11: The economic life of the U.S.S.R. is determined and directed by the state plan of national economy for the purposes of increasing the public wealth, of steadily raising the material and cultural level of the toilers, and of strengthening the independence of the U.S.S.R. and its defence capacity.

Article 12: In the U.S.S.R. work is the duty of every able-bodied citizen, according to the principle: "He who does not work, neither shall he eat."

In the U.S.S.R. the principle of socialism is realized: "From each according to his ability, to each according to his work."

Organisation Of The State

Article 13: The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics is a federated state, formed on the basis of the voluntary association of the following Soviet Socialist Republics possessing equal rights: The Russian Soviet Federative Socialist Republic; The Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic; The Byelorussian (White Russian) Soviet Socialist Republic; the Azerbaidjan Soviet Socialist Republic; The Gruzian (Georgian) Soviet Socialist Republic; The Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic; The Turkmen Soviet Socialist Republic; The Uzbek Soviet Socialist Republic; The Tadjik Soviet Socialist Republic; The Kazakh Soviet Socialist Republic, and The Kirghiz Soviet Socialist Republic.

Article 14: The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, as represented by its highest organs of power and organs of state administration, has charge of: (a) Representation of the Union in international relations, conclusion and ratification of treaties with other states; (b) Questions of war and peace; (c)

FRANKLY SPEAKING

MORE INFRACTIONS

Reports from Lisbon must naturally be taken with a good deal of reserve. But the fact need not be doubted that Madrid is in a sad plight and more likely to fall to the rebels than to beat them back: Foreign tanks and aeroplanes cannot be fought indefinitely with sticks, however heroically the latter may be wielded. In this connection, the Spanish Government have handed to the British Foreign Office another note giving specific instances of infraction of the non-intervention agreement as recently as last week. Allegations have been made that a large number of tanks and flame-throwers from Italy were landed at Cadiz on October 15 and that a German destroyer landed aircraft guns at Algeciras on October 17. The Non-Intervention Committee has done its reprehensible worst and, we fear, successfully to throw the Spanish Government and the people, tied hand and foot, to foreign-aided rebels. The question is what will the Committee do when it meets?

COMMISSIONED LETTERS TO PRESS.

We published yesterday certain papers released by Sjt. Mahadev Desai relating to Mr. J. D. Jenkins who has made it his business to write offensive letters in the Anglo-Indian Press against the Congress and the Congress President. His letter reveals how contemptible has been his effort to blackguard Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. Mr. Jenkins or J. D. J. is a type that does not deserve much notice; it condemns itself by its own performances. But two points are noteworthy. Mr. Jenkins apologises to the President, but, so far as we are aware, he has not had the decency to write, to the newspaper which published his disgraceful attack, a letter expressing public regret for it. Secondly, his last letter to the President, which is extremely revealing otherwise also, contains a passage which explains Mr. J. D. Jenkins only too well. "I" says Mr. Jenkins, "have been commissioned by His Highness the Aga Khan to write occasionally in the Press for and on behalf of his community. ." As Sjt. Desai says, comment on Mr. Jenkins' explanations are really needless.

THE MIRACLE

Till 1930 the Frontier Province was believed to be politically the most backward province in the country, but in that year it won its place in the vanguard in the country's struggle for freedom. On this apparent miracle Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan, who really made the miracle possible, threw some interesting light in his address to the students of Delhi, though with his characteristic modesty he said little of his own silent constructive work in organising his province. He pointed out how Government unconsciously helped to give his organisation a distinctly political character. The "Red Shirts", he said, did only social service at first; but Government distrusted them, and jailed him; when, left leaderless, they naturally accepted the lead of the Congress. Whatever may be the cause of the change, the change itself is a happy one, and to-day there are thousands in the Frontier Province ever ready to serve loyally the Congress through thick and thin and, if need be, to die for the country. The change is largely the work of the Khan Saheb. Government themselves admit this, when they fear his very entry into his province.

NO COMPROMISE

Fresh attempts are being made both in the United Provinces and the Central Provinces to bring about an understanding between the Congress and the Nationalist Party with regard to the ensuing elections. But we trust that no attempt will be made to compromise the Congress attitude towards the Communal Award or any other part of the Congress Manifesto. The experience with the Democratic Swaraj Party of Poona, which was, and perhaps still is, the Maharashtra branch of the Nationalist Party, must make the Congress wary in the negotiations in question. No seat should be surrendered to any non-Congress party if there is a reasonably good prospect of its being won for the Congress.

KAMALA MEMORIAL

We wholeheartedly endorse the appeal for funds in aid of the Kamala Memorial Hospital, issued by the Trustees of the Fund and published in our columns yesterday. It is an imperative duty of the country to raise a fitting memorial to keep ever-green the inspiring memory of Kamala Nehru whom the appeal apply describes as "that rare spirit who by her courage under the most adverse circumstances and by her unfailing devotion to the cause of her country even to the day of her death, has set a very high standard of personal conduct for the people of this country to follow". The Trustees have wisely decided to build in her memory a hospital for women and children in Allahabad in continuation of the medical relief work which was started by herself seven years ago. It is also proposed to build, as and when funds permit, similar units in various parts of the country and to create an endowment fund for the proper and continuous conduct of the memorial hospital. The present appeal is for a sum of only five lakhs of rupees for the establishment and endowment of the first unit at Allahabad as early as possible. We trust there will be prompt and generous response to the appeal.

SWADESHI MARKET

We deeply regret the circumstances which have compelled the Swadeshi Market Committee of Bombay to suspend its main activity, the administration and inspection of Swadeshi goods in the Swadeshi Market at Kalbadevi. It appears that the present proprietors of the market are not disposed to give the Committee the necessary facilities and powers for the continuance of this activity and the latter has accordingly announced that henceforth it "will not be responsible in any way about the administration of the said market." We still hope the new proprietors will revise their attitude towards the Committee and thereby help the great cause of Swadeshi. In any case, we trust the Committee will continue its general Swadeshi propaganda and that the merchants in the Swadeshi Market will continue to deal only in Swadeshi goods.

作作-a-作作

WITHOUT COMMENT

"One or two Liberal leaders appear to be optimistic about their Party's chances. If four or five candidates who contest openly under the Liberal ticket are returned to the Lower House, the leaders should be well satisfied. . . .

"The Liberal power, however, will undoubtedly be felt in the Upper House among members elected on the Liberal Party ticket, supported by landholders, representatives, business men, and others."

According to the London "City Correspondent" of an Anglo-Indian contemporary, "the inhumane rigidity of the old gold standard has disappeared" and been replaced by the "new and elastic" gold standard.

India so firmly established on the Steel Frame Standard and quite thoroughly relieved of the main source of all troubles, gold, can watch the hobblings and agile antics of the world with complacent satisfaction.

Mr. J. D. Jenkins alias J. D. J. explains to the President that he has "been commissioned by His Highness the Aga Khan to write occasionally in the Press for and on behalf of his community. . ."

Good. Now we need not wonder about Mr. Jenkins' other occasional writings too.

After 90 minutes conference with Baron von Neurath, Count Ciano declared, "I am satisfied".

It is to be hoped that Captain Anthony Eden will now be more than satisfied.

France, declares M. Delbos, will do nothing without consulting Britain and other Non-Interventionist Powers.

And, of course, positively nothing after consulting them.

The British Cabinet has decided that no useful purpose will be served at all by summoning Parliament as requested by Major Attlee.

None at all. The British Cabinet commands a decisive majority.

On the contrary, there was the slight danger of a public debate hindering the allies of the Spanish rebels and to that extent helping the Government.

* * * *

In his letter to Major Attlee, Mr. Baldwin says that the Non-intervention Committee is "now investigating certain allegations."

It is obvious that the Tory Premier has either not yet recouped his health or done so very thoroughly.

What will the Non-Intervention Committee do when it meets, asks 'alter ego'.

With cheerful regret it will wind itself up and sympathetically invite the present Spanish Government to go to hell.

Soviet And Neutrality Pact

France's Obligations Subject Of Pointed Question To Delbos

PARIS: October 21.

France's obligations under the Franco-Soviet Pact were the subject of a pointed question to M. Delbos, Foreign Minister, at a meeting of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Chamber.

When asked what France's position would be if Russia withdrew from the Non-Intervention Agreement, M. Delbos said that the Pact only become operative if the Russian territory were attacked and, for the moment, there was no question of that.

M. Delbos also pointed out that the Pact was within the framework of the League and any question of aggression would have to be thrashed out.

M. Delbos re-affirmed France's standpoint of absolute non-intervention in Spain.

If Madrid Fell

Asked what would happen if the Soviet were to intervene in favour of Madrid or Barcelona and, if a dispute arose between the Soviet and the Central Powers, M. Delbos, after stating that the Franco-Soviet Pact would not operate unless, the Russian territory was attacked, added that each of the contracting parties retained the liberty to determine exactly what constituted aggression. Thus, the eventual assistance was in no wise automatic.

Asked what would happen if Madrid fell and Catalonia appealed to France for assistance, M. Delbos declared that France would do nothing without consulting Britain and the Non-Intervention Powers.—Reuter.

HITLER YOUTH FINDS NEW CHAMPION

Count Ciano, Duce's Pooh-Bah, Expresses His Admiration

BERLIN, Oct. 21.

Closer co-operation between the youth of Germany and Italy was stressed at a rally of the Hitler youth at which Count Ciano was present.

Von Schirach, German youth leader, announced a new plan for the establishment of institutes in Rome and Berlin for the exchange of youth leaders of both countries.

German leaders will be sent to Rome to gain acquaintance with Italian political and cultural matters, while Italian youth leaders will visit Berlin to study German problems.

Count Ciano expressed admiration for the Hitler Youth Movement.—Reuter.

TWO LAKHS FOR ELECTION

U. P. Congress Selects 144 Candidates For Assembly

(From Our Correspondent.)

ALLAHABAD, October 22.

The Council of the United Provinces Congress Committee passed a resolution to-night to raise a fund of Rs. 2 lakhs by the first fortnight of November to contest the elections. This is in pursuance of the appeal issued by Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru and Sardar Patel for funds. All district and subordinate organisations have been directed to organise collections forthwith. A sub-committee known as Finance Committee has been appointed to take up the work.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Committee consists of eight members including Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, Babu P. Tandon, Pt. Govind Vallabh Pant and Babu Sri Prakash. Dr. Murarilal is the convener Out of the funds collected 75 per cent will be allotted to District Committees and 25 to Provincial Committee.

It is understood the Council considered several schemes for organising the election fight but did not approve of any particular scheme.

144 CANDIDATES.

It appears the Council has selected about 144 candidates for election to the Provincial Assembly and some more might be added.

From the reports received from District Committees it appears that already 61,934 new Congress members have been enrolled in U. P. Some Committees have not yet sent in their reports.

D. A. V. COLLEGE GOLDEN JUBILEE

LAHORE, Oct. 22.

In connection with the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the Dayanand Anglo-Vedic College about a mile-long procession was taken out this afternoon. The procession started from the College premises and returned to the college after passing through the important streets of the City. Mr. Nanakchand Pandit M.L.C., led the procession, seated on the back of an elephant bearing the standard of a huge "Om."

Mr. Justice Bakshi Tekchand, Sir Gokulchand Narang, Minister, Mahatma Hansraj, and Dewan Bahadur Harbilas Sarda were prominent among those who joined the procession.

The whole city was decorated in this connection. Elaborate police arrangements were made.—United Press.

"GIRL PAT" JUDGMENT

Both Orsbornes Get Convicted

LONDON, October 22.

The "Girl Pat" trial ended at the Old Bailey in sentences of 18 months' hard labour on George Orsborne and 12 months on Jim Orsborne.

The Judge was very severe in his two-hour summing-up. He said that some press proprietor had agreed to pay the two prisoners and two crew £5,000 for the story which was against the public interest and out of this two of the crew who were witnesses for the defence had been receiving five pounds weekly from the prisoners' solicitors, which was an undesirable state of things.

The Judge condemned the suggestion that Mr. Moore who was a director of the ship's company desire the ship to be scuttled, which he said was without the slightest foundation.

The Judge's general indication to the Jury was that the prisoners' stories could not be believed. It was like a cashier proceeding to Paris with stolen £5,000 and returning with the balance saying that he did not mean to steal but meant to come back.

The Jury's verdict of guilty was delivered after 35 minutes' retirement.—Reuter.

Navalcarnero Falls To Rebels

Grim Struggle For Defence Of Spanish Capital Begun

LONDON: October 22.

Navalcarnero, the Capital's main western bulwark, passed completely into the hands of insurgents last evening, bringing the besieging forces into concentric line Illescas to Siguenza, with Escorial the only gap.

At dawn yesterday colonial troops, directed by Colonel Varela, continued their thrust along the Talavera Road, with Valmojado as the base and Navalcarnero as their objective. They met with strong resistance from the Militiamen who, strongly entrenched on hillside positions, checked advancing insurgents with withering cross-fire from machine-guns, but ten squadrons of tri-engined insurgent 'planes, arrived and bombed Government redoubts batteries into silence, thus easily bringing down four Government intercepting 'planes.

Insurgents, thereupon, advanced and occupied their objective with little resistance. Militiamen are retreating towards Madrid, and now it is clear that final assault on the Capital will be made from the south-west with Illescas as the base.

General Franco expects Government forces to retreat to Catalonia when the capital falls and there make a final defence in newly-proclaimed independent Republic with Barcelona as its Capital.

"All Men To The Front"

The loss of Navalcarnero has galvanised the Capital, where a broadcast communique declared that Madrid's hour was at hand. With the sound of gunfire growing nearer, thousands of women are forming processions in the streets, carrying red banners with slogan: "They shant pass" and shouting "All men to the front."

They invaded Senor Caballero's office and demanded mobilization of the whole population in defence of the capital.

Young girls, have gone out to help militia entrench themselves on southern and western outskirts of the city, where a thousand militiamen wait grim and determined, at present fortified by official reports that Government counter-attacks in Illescas sector are succeeding.

An example of retaliatory massacre, which the British Foreign Secretary is trying to avert by appeal for exchange of hostages, occurred at Cartegena, where all prisoners held by Government were summarily shot as reprisal for hour-long insurgent air-raid which considerably damaged the town and caused a number of casualties.—Reuter.

British Destroyer Has Narrow Escape

RED CROSS ARRANGES EXCHANGE OF HOSTAGES

British Ships Evacuate 144 Women

RUGBY, October 22.

Details have now been received of the exchange of women and children hostages which Dr. Junod, of the International Red Cross arranged between the authorities at Burgos and the newly established Basque administration at Bilbao.

On 11th October 114 women hostages were evacuated from Bilbao to St. Jean de Luz, by H.M.S. "Exmouth" and "Esk". Dr. Junod was assisted in this work by Mr. Stevenson, British Consul, Mr. Innes, Vice-Consul, and Captain Burrough, R.N. These women refugees displayed the utmost gratitude for the part played by the British Navy and on being taken aboard the warship loudly cheered El Rex Edward the Eight. On 17th October H.M.S. "Esk" embarked 41 children and five nurses at St. Sebastian and before their departure each child was given a gift by the local Mayor at the Red Cross Institution. When they were landed at Bilbao they were received by a cheering crowd and given a civic welcome arranged by the Mayor and the Consular Corps. Dr. Junod left Bilbao on H.M.S. 'Escort' on Saturday for St. Jean de Luz with another hundred refugees.

The local Red Cross authorities have sent a message of thanks for the help given by His Majesty's ships.—B.O.W.

A "Student's" Manifesto

MR. NARIMAN'S REPLY

(The following are extracts from a statement issued by Mr. K. F. Nariman in reply to a statement which purported to have been issued by the Secretaries of the Bombay Presidency Students' Conference Executive Committee. (Mr. Godiwala, Secretary of the Bombay Presidency Students' Conference Executive Committee, wrote to "The Chronicle" yesterday that the statement was issued by Mr. P. B. Ranganekar, one of the Secretaries of the Committee, in his personal capacity.)

It would have been wiser and better for the Secretaries of the Bombay Students' Conference, to have adhered to the original aims and objects of the "Students' Conference" and deal only with matters educational and academical; both as a matter of policy and principle, it was deliberately decided to confine its future functions to scholastic activities of students, and no political, national or socialistic resolutions were allowed to be moved or discussed at its two days' session. It is the duty of important office-bearers like the Secretaries to give effect to that deliberate policy and principle.

Instead of critically surveying the attitude and contributions of others, it would have been more interesting to have from these Secretaries, an account of the actual active part played by them and other members of the Conference, either as peace-makers or even as relief or rescue—parties. A large number of non-University youths are enrolled as volunteers, but I believe none of the "embroidered robed ones" have yet ventured. One can argue and reason on the lines of this literary and learned statement of Students Secretaries", even with fanatic communalists; and the national outlook and socialistic viewpoint of this propagandist sermon would certainly appeal to the patriotic sentiments of political agitations during political unrest. These are sound arguments against suppressing freedom of movements. But, if as the statement surmises, this trouble is non-communal and non-political, but mainly due to the "underworld undesirables" of this City, then in the midst of such red-hot tension, it is obviously silly to try to reason and argue with these illiterate . desperadoes and persuade these riff-raffs and hooligans, to give up this mischievous profiteering and mad pursuits, by preaching high and noble ideals of nationalism and socialism, or appealing to their high sense of patriotism, which perhaps they do not possess.

EFFECTIVE ANTI-DOTE

Unfortunately, like some school-boy philosophers, they are not merely book-worms, mostly confined to their class-rooms or lecture halls; though illiterate, they are practical men of the world. They mean business and believe in business maxims, viz., "to make hay while the sun shines" or "to strike while the iron is hot."

"Bullism" and "rowdyism" of this inhuman type, unlike all other "isms" like nationalism, patriotism, and socialism, can understand only one argument, and that is the "mailed fist" or "naked brute force"; that is the only effective antidote to this "law of knife."

God forbid, but if these juvenile preachers, from a safe distance, of sober philosophy, had themselves been entrapped in one of these death-traps, surrounded by howling crowds of frenzied beasts thirsting for their blood, with kerosene and petrol tins, ready to flay them alive, then it would have been really creditable, if they had preached the same sermon with the same patience and calmness: faced with such tragic and grim realities, they would have forgotten all their wisdom, and clamoured, at the top of their voice for police and military aid and would have condemned the "satanic" Government for abandoning such precious lives.

NEED OF THE HOUR.

At such a critical juncture, to save human lives and property and to restore calm and peace, is the obvious and first duty of every citizen, and whoever by a false sentiment of inhuman nationalism or still more sinful notion of "superiority complex" or political prestige, refrains from that elementary civic duty, would be guilty of unpardonable crime against humanity.

"SATANIC" DOCTRINE.

According to this cruel logic one should not expect or demand any co-operation or assistance from the "irresponsible bureaucracy" but allow fellow citizens to suffer and die of plague, earthquakes, floods, fire and all such other disasters natural or human; because according to this new political "satanic" doctrine of the Students' Conference a people deprived of all political rights cannot call upon an "irresponsible bureaucracy" to fulfil a democratic function which can be fulfilled only by a popular Government, much less can it give a free charter of military occupation to such a Government." No relief of rescue of any kind, no matter how dire a calamity, till "Purna Swaraj" is attained. Luckily I know this is not the view of the student community in general.

"BOMBAST."

Such a 'bombast' comes with ill-grace from the Secretaries of obtaining some small redress for alleged petty grievances as chalked out in the students "charter" by means of constitutional fight from the "University" a creature of the same "irresponsible bureaucracy"; an appeal to stop the 'slaughter of matriculates,' is more justified than a demand to stop actual slaughter of human beings. Even a mendicant petition was once seriously contemplated to beg for some "doles from the very head of the same irresponsible bureaucracy." Thus there is a wide gulf between them preaching and actual practice.

My last humble advice to this "quill drivers" is the same as that given to youths all over the world "talk little, write less, but do more."

OUR READERS' VIEWS

Non-Capacity Of Chiefs And Talukdars To Incur Debts

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The preamble of Civil Court Rules of 1924 reads as under:—"As no holder or sub-sharer of any estate assessed for Government or Gaikwadi tribute and as no Talukdar or his sub-sharer is liable for any debt or liability incurred by his predecessor unless he has admitted his liability or unless such debt or liability has received the written sanction of the Political Agent, no Agency Court shall entertain any suit against any such holder, Talukdar or sub-sharer in respect of any debt or liability not admitted or sanctioned as aforesaid."

Save in exercise of residuary jurisdiction no Agency Court shall, with or without, the sanction of the Political Agent entertain suit against any holder or sub-sharer of an estate assessed for Government or Gaikwari tribute or against any such Talukdar or his sub-sharer."

2. The law of the Province is that no Agency Court shall entertain any suit against any Chief or Talukdar of the first two classes—their jurisdiction being unlimited. Even if the debt be for payment of Peshkashi or Government dues, no Agency Court will entertain any suit against first and second classes. A suit in the State Court is more often than not a farce and is a denial of justice.

3. No Agency Court shall entertain any suit against Talukdars below second class for debts due upto the limit of their limited jurisdiction.

4. It is only in cases of residuary jurisdiction of the Agency that monetary suits will be entertained in the Agency Civil Courts for debts above the value of their pecuniary jurisdiction.

5. In such cases, the Circular of restricting interest to 6 per cent. simple interest shall apply.

6. In such cases, the life interest principle shall apply, i.e., the debts and decrees shall die on the death of a Talukdar or sub-sharer and all civil proceedings in suits and execution proceedings shall terminate.

7. Crores of rupees of "bona-fide" merchants and traders have been wiped out by the application of these rules. Still the public does not take a lesson.—Yours, etc.,

"AWAKE."

POINTS FROM LETTERS

Amalgamation

S. E. MAIGUR (Gulburga), deplores the cut-throat competition in Indian industries and pleads for amalgamation and centralisation.

"J. D. J.'s" Antics

C. M. ELCHIWALLA (Bombay) says that it is amusing to learn that Mr. Jenkins strives hard to promote harmony beweeen the two great communities. It is the duty he adds of every individual, who has the interest of India at heart to condemn and expose such so-called communal harmony-promoters to the public.

Wire-pullers

"MUCH AFFLICTED" (Indore) deplores the fact that some people decry the acts of hooliganism as a whole in one breath, but endeavour to carry on a propaganda in favour of those of their own community, in another, thus playing the role of wire pullers. It is such men he says who, in fact, primarily deserve to be severely dealt with by the Government if a future recrudescence of the disturbance of peace has to be prevented.

No Communal Cricket

"PROGRESS OF INDIAN CRICKET", (Bombay) suggests that fixtures of Quadrangular matches on communal basis should be given up and should be made on the basis of teams composed from amongst the best players in the country from the Parsi, European, Christian, Mahomedan and Hindu communities. Such fixtures, he says, being most well-contested, will not only raise the level of Indian Cricket higher than those made on communal basis but will also render the matches more interesting.

Mosque-Mandir Controversy

To The Editor of "The Chronicle"

Sir,—I have seen Mr. M. A. Khan's letter. As stated before I have no desire to open graves but to let sleeping dogs lie.

Your correspondent Mr. M. A Khan is unaware of what has happened and is happening. The Hindus were willing as in the past, to accommodate the Muslims. What is called 'sane' Muslim opinion accepted the offer but had no courage to stand by it 'vis a vis' fanatics to whom the leadership has passed. That is tragedy, indeed, and here in is the germ of all trouble.—Yours, etc.

Wanted An Enquiry

To The Editor of "The Chronicle"

Sir,—I have great pleasure in endorsing the suggestion of a public enquiry so boldly made by Mr. Abdul Rehman Mitha.

I trust the Government will accept it. Whenever in the past such a suggestion has been made it has been turned down on the plea of keeping the wound open. That has encouraged political goondaism and intellectual mavalism.

An enquiry of the kind will bury most of the leaders (?) beyond fear of resurrection.

If one-tenth of what is said about some of the leaders is correct, they should have been hounded out of public life. Such public life as they have is a mask for political goondaism and some of them make money of it—that is their business.

Public enquiry would make them insolvents and that is necessary.—Yours, etc.

Bombay Riots And Shop-Fires

To The Editor of "The Chronicle"

Sir,—I read in this morning's papers that a Mahomedan's shop in a Hindu locality was attempted to be set fire to a couple of days ago, but the vigilance of the Police foiled the attempt.

It is also reported that this morning, a person was detected with oil-soaked rags to set fire to the same shop and it is alleged that he was discovered to be the very Musalman owner of the shop who expected to get his insurance money or the riot compensation for the loss.

This discovery needs a thorough investigation into the shops looted or set fire to in other localities, and to ascertain whether the origin of the mischief was not self-inflicted.—Yours, etc.,

HOURS OF POLLING.

From 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. without closure at all the polling stations.

Sir Md. Yakub's Interview

pect? Sir Mahomed Yakub certainly does not belong to Bombay. While preaching a sermon as to the advisability or otherwise of inviting outsiders, may we ask what right has he to make the statement that he has made? The only conclusion to which we could reasonably come to is as stated above; he has embraced the opportunity for his own objective. We do not wish to go into details as we feel instead of doing good, it would unnecessarily create misunderstanding which is not our objective and which is far far away from our minds. Every responsible person in the city knows very well what the Muslim leaders are doing. The reference that Sir Mahomed Yakub has made to Mr. Jinnah is certainly out of place. We know very well that Sir Mahomed Yakub has been out to sling mud at the activities of the All-India Muslim League but it is monstrous that such an opportunity as the present condition of our city should have been attempted to be exploited for such a purpose. Mr. Jinnah had declared long before that he was to go to the Punjab and the North Western Frontier Province and his programme was fixed. In fact before the riots, he had left Simla according to the programme and we are prepared to say that he would have been immediately in Bombay if some definite arrangements was actually on the anvil and his consultation was necessary, although leaving all the programme of so vital an importance as he has undertaken is not a small thing. The reference made to Mr. Bhulabhai Desai and others also show the trend of Sir Mahomed Yakub's mentality. The present question has not certainly cropped up. It has been known all over since some time and, therefore, in order to bring about an amicable settlement on this question, does require a deep and mature consideration. Once more, we wish to state that the Muslim leaders are endeavouring their best and they are not leaving nothing which could help them to bring about an amicable relationship as early as possible.

Nazi Present To Bridal Pair

The State-controlled organization for promoting the interests of newspaper publishers in Berlin has decided to present every bridal couple with a voucher entitling them to a daily newspaper free of charge for the period of one month.

The object is to inculcate the newspaper-reading habit, which is steadily declining in Germany because the censorship has reduced the press to little more than a mouthpiece for the Propaganda Minister.

Who Is Schacht?

Dr. Schacht, German economic dictator, makes a statement on Germany's currency policy in face of franc devaluation.

His full name is Hjalmar Horace Greely Schacht (Horace Greeley was famous New York editor, candidate for U. S. Presidency, inventor of pharase "Go West, Young Man, Go West"). Schacht was born in 1877 in Schleswig, on the Danish border. He started as a bank clerk, and gradually worked his way up. During the war he was in charge of finances of the occupied Belgium. He achieved real fame in 1923 when he "saved the mark." Became President of the Reichsbank as a reward. Resigned in 1930 rather than agree to the Hague Reparations Treaty. He came out as a strong Nationlist in politics. Got his job back when Hitler took over, and has gradually made himself economic dictator. He is disliked by the Nazi extremists and has always won battles with them.

Turtle In Nazi Helmet

General Goering is Grand Master of the German Hunt and is fond of parading himself leading wild animals.

One day Hitler reproached him. "It is really going too far. Herman", said the Fuehrer, "leading a turtle about. I don't object to lions, but a turtle—well, I ask you!"

"Me, leading a turtle," said Goering, "when was that?"

"Last Tuesday" said Hitler.

"Turtle be damned. That was Goebbels in a steel helmet."

LATE SIR LALUBHAI

A Link With The Past Snapped

(By B. G. KHER).

One more link with the past, with Bombay of the days of Sir Pherozshah Mehta, Watcha, Gokhale, has snapped—by the passing away of Sir Lalubhai Samaldas. He made such a deep impression on one—his distinguished appearance, dignified manner—sweet persuasive voice. I saw him first in 1904-05. He lived on Girgaum Back Road and I went there to see the late Mr. Gokhale, who was his guest. He had a wonderful memory and when a couple of years ago I mentioned this incident, he could recall that particular visit of Gokhole though, of course, he could not remember me. And then recently, I think in X'mas 1933, I had the privilege of spending a long time in his company at Matheran. I could see that his politeness came out of a genuine kindness of heart and sympathy with fellow-mortals and was not the thin veneer of superficial manners. He was incapable of uttering a hard word and could not be rude. And not a single one out of his numerous friends, relatives and acquaintances will, I believe, be able to recall an occasion when he failed to return the call of courtesy, to attend the sick-bed and to extend sympathy or to do any of those social duties which properly discharged, make life pleasanter—happier all round. His philosophic temperament kept him so cheerful and he was an optimist of the first rank. When a couple of years ago he had to undergo an operation, he was quite unconcerned though all about him felt very nervous. At an age when others less intrepid would wish to spend their days in the bosom of their family, he visited Japan, he visited Trivandrum—he took delight in flying. It was a joy to see his serene countenance and his confidence in himself and in the world was contagious. It was the outcome of his deep culture—thoughtful meditation and wide reading. He gave me "a Browning Anthology" to read. It bears marks of his careful study. I meant to return it to him but it will now be one of my cherished treasures—till the summons comes to me:

"To join the innumerable caravan, which slowly moves,
To take its chambers in the silent halls of death."

So, it is all over.

As a businessman, I think he was very thorough and nothing was too insignificant—nothing escaped his attention—he took count of the minutest details—which must be the key to his success, but on that side of his life, I am not qualified to speak. His memory will always remain with me as that of one of the few respected, refined, highly cultured gentlemen I have known and as such I pay to it this humble and sad tribute.

SKINNY, WEAK, NERVOUS, RUNDOWN..!

AT LAST I'VE FOUND THE WAY TO ADD POUNDS QUICKLY!

How FOOD IODINE and MINERALS Build Thin, Worn-Out, Nervous People into Strong, Red-Blooded Men and Women, Without the Use of Drugs!

ALL-INDIA OGILVIE FOOTBALL

(From Our Correspondent)
AJMER, By mail.

The final match of the All-India Ogilvie Football Tournament was played yesterday between Friends' Union Club (a) Nasirabad and T. Field Battery, R. A. Nasirabad on the Loco Sports Ground. The ground was besieged by a mammoth gathering of spectators, to witness the most thrilling match that Ajmer has seen.

In the first half the T. Battery scored two goals but in the second the Friends Union equalised the scores.

Ten minutes more were given after the scheduled time, when the Friends' Union, by scoring a goal won a decisive victory, amidst deafening shouts of applause.

Mr. L. C. L. Griffin, President of the Tournament gave away a large magnificent silver cup to the winners, who jubilantly went in a procession through the streets of the city, accompanied by a band.

ELECTION DRIVE IN SIND

Congress To Contest Over Two-thirds Of General Seats

(From Our Correspondent)
HYDERABAD (Sind) Oct. 22.

The election campaign of Congress candidates in Sind is proceeding briskly. Every day signs are forthcoming that people want to back up Congress even in this province. Congress has selected ten candidates so far and proposes to contest about two-thirds of the total seats available to non-Muslims. The Provincial Parliamentary Board members will tour during the election week to be soon fixed and collection work will be concentrated during first fortnight of November.

The Provincial Congress Committee meets at Karachi on 25th instant to receive the report of work so far done by the Provincial Parliamentary Committee and to allot delegates to districts under new Congress constitution.

BLOW TO TEA INDUSTRY

Sequel To Erosion Of Dibrugarh

(From Our Correspondent)
TEZPUR. (By mail)

The erosion of the town of Dibrugarh in the Upper Assam has had grave consequences. The one time extensive area known as Tapapool had all but disappeared. The Rivers Steam and Navigation Company have started bandalling with bamboo palisades on far side of the main stream across from the affected area.

Dibrugarh is the foremost town in the Upper Assam and a wealthy residence of hundreds of rich Tea Planters. The population of this town consists of all kind of peoples of the world.

If this town is allowed to be eroded by the waters of the Brahmaputra, a centre of tea growing and tea industry, one of the absorbing industries containing a considerable share of the Indian people, will be missed for ever.

The panic stricken public of the town and the suburban areas have been incessantly urging the Government to take early steps to avert further erosion and thereby save the lives and property of the thousands of the inhabitants.

NO VOTE FOR GOVT. NOMINEE?

Purulia Civic Chief's Reply To Bihar Local Self-Govt. Minister

(From Our Correspondent)
PATNA, Oct. 22.

The "Searchlight" publishes an interesting correspondence between Sir Ganeshdutta Singh, Minister of Local Self-Government and Sjt. Jimut Bahan Sen Chairman of the Purulia Municipality, having a bearing on the coming elections. The Minister, in his letter of request sent to Mr. Sen to secure votes of his municipality for one, Mr. M. G. Rungta, says he considers Mr. Rungta to be a suitable candidate from the Chota Nagpur Urban Constituency. The Minister further says that Rungta is an agent of the Tata Iron and Steel Company and has the support of the Company and also a very large number of votes at his disposal and that his success appears to be almost certain.

Mr. Sen, in his reply, points out that he has never heard of Mr. Rungta, in connection with any public activities and that the people of these days like to make sure before voting that candidates are not by any chance Government nominees. Mr. Sen adds that as a Congressman, his own vote or whatever influence, he may command will go to the Congress nominee.

Deccan Muslim Institute

(From A Correspondent).
POONA.

The twentieth annual meeting of the Deccan Muslim Institute of Poona was held on the 18th October under the presidentship of Khan Bahadur Shaikh Jan Muhammad, the popular Muslim leader of Poona. The annual report was read and the accounts were presented by Mr. Muhammad Ali, the indefatigable Secretary, who laid stress on the urgent need of housing the institute in a building of its own and appealed to the members to collect, for this purpose, Rs. 10,000. When the report and the accounts were duly passed, a stirring Urdu poem, composed by Professor Sayyed Nawab Ali, M.A., formerly Educational Member, Junagadh State, and a poet and scholar of high repute, was sung in a melodious voice by Mr. Abu Tahir, B.A. The poem referred to the past glory of the Muslim Deccan in the heyday of its prosperity and exhorted the Muslims to take a leaf out of the book of their Hindu brethren, who had made Poona the centre of intellectual activities in the Deccan. The president, in a suitable speech, expressed his appreciation of the service rendered by Mr. Muhammad Ali during the last several years, and with characteristic generosity, announced a donation of Rs. 100 for the general fund and promised another contribution of Rs. 1,000 or more towards the building fund, provided the members succeeded in raising about 4 or 5 thousand by public subscriptions. He also promised to exert himself to secure for the Institute a suitable site free of cost. The meeting terminated with a hearty vote of thanks to the President, proposed by Mr. Abu Tahir.

This institute was founded twenty years ago by a small band of educated young men. At present it is the only Muslim body in Poona which counts among its members the largest number of educated Muslims of Poona. The aims and objects of the institute are to bring pure and healthy literature within easy reach of the Muslims, to foster among them a taste for healthy reading, to maintain a well-stocked library, and to provide the Muslims with pamphlets and leaflets dealing with matters both educational and social.

CONGRATULATIONS

to every man and woman

whose teeth are still perfect

whose hair is still healthy

whose nerves are still steady

whose vitality is still buoyant

They've escaped the most common complaint of civilised people—a shortage of minerals in the body. Teeth were meant to last a lifetime, hair to retain its colour and luxuriance, and the heart and nervous system should give carefree service for 'three-score years and ten'.

But teeth, hair, nerves and muscles depend for well-being on the millions of cells of which the body is made up. These cells must have plenty of minerals to keep them strong; any shortage weakens them and you soon feel the effect in every organ of your body. Kalzana supplies the body with all the minerals it requires, in an easily absorbed form. Therefore, the effects of Kalzana are quickly felt in increased vitality, better appetite, soothed nerves. Soon the whole system is toned up. The teeth regain strength and hardness and decay is arrested. Radiant health returns—to stay. Start taking Kalzana without delay—give it to your children too.

"I am never without Kalzana, not taking them always, but at any time of extra strain, and when there are infections about. I find my resistance to disease and my general health marvellous."

Rangoon Letter

AGITATION AGAINST BHIKKU OTTAMA

Foiling His Attempts To Bring Unity Among Political Parties

(From Our Correspondent.)
RANGOON, (By Mail.)

Mr. Farsworth Loomis and Mr. Arthur Emmons two of the four American members of the British-American Himalayan Expedition which succeeded in reaching the summit of Nanda Devi arrived in Rangoon by the English mail boat from Calcutta for a short stay here. They are "en route" to China where the two Americans will collect zoological specimens before returning to United States. The other member of the Expedition have returned by the westward route.

Mr. M. A. Narayan Rao, M.A., B.Sc., the Indian Labour leader, arrived here on Wednesday by the s.s. "Chilka" and was given a rousing reception by thousands of Indian workers and other prominent Indians at the wharf. He was garlanded by representatives of different Telugu and Labour organisations. In the evening the Andhra Volunteer Corps furnished a guard of honour and presented him a welcome address and later the electors of the Indian labour constituency in West Rangoon presented him with another address. Mr. Narayan Rao was a member of the delegation with Mr. N. M. Joshi to Delhi to present a memorandum on Indian Labour problems in Burma and he was instrumental in including Burma in the payment of wages bill. He has come here to contest one of the seats in the House of Representatives.

AGITATION AGAINST OTTAMA.

Since the arrival of Bhikku U. Ottama from Calcutta there has started an agitation among one section of the Phongyis who seemed to be against him and they have commenced regular work to counteract the attempts of the Bhikku, who intends to try to bring unity among the political parties in the province. The agitation has arisen as the Bhikku, it is stated, has been brought down to Burma by the United Party for political propaganda in favour of the party in connection with the forthcoming general elections in the province. A mass meeting of the Phongyis was held and attended by several hundreds of them. The actions and the attitude of the Bhikku U Ottama was considered and discussed. U Kumara informed the audience that he with 60 other Phongyis interviewed the Bhikku in connection with his visit to Burma but the U. Ottama informed them that he returned for work of unity in the province.

The supporters and followers of the Rev. U Ottama are organising a mass meeting to be held shortly in Rangoon to approve the actions of the Bhikku and pass a motion of confidence in him. On the eve of the elections such agitation has created a political sensation in the country and its reactions will be the surprising results in the elections. It is feared in many quarters that this agitation by the monks might lead to serious consequences. The Bhikku is now on a tour in the district for political propaganda in connection with the elections and is expected in Rangoon at the end of next week.

MIND YOUR BRAKES FOR GREATER SAFETY

Sudden Stops Are Costly And May Cause A Lot Of Trouble

We have all noticed that whenever a train makes a long enough stop in a station there is somebody on the job, dodging in and out from under the cars making sure that everything is in good shape for the train to continue its trip. Among the things checked at every inspection point are the brakes. For nobody knows better than railways how important it is to be able to stop when you want to stop. Now, if we think of it in a certain light, we people who own cars are all running little transportation systems of our own—just like the railways and air lines and bus companies.

THE SYMPTOMS

Home is the main terminal and there are lots of stops along the line—flag stops, you might say, and regular scheduled stops—like the office, the grocery store, the school, the theatre, and our friends' houses. And, just like the railways, one of the main things we need to look out for is our brakes. Of course, everybody knows this and yet somehow or other we're apt to be a little careless about it. Not that the brakes don't give us plenty of notice when they are going to need adjustment. As time goes on we find that we can push the pedal lower and lower, till after a while we can shove it down almost to the floorboards before the brakes take hold. Even then we sometimes wait quite a while before we have them adjusted. It just seems to be human nature to put off things like that. Well, they tell us the result is that one-third of all the cars on the roads at any given time have something wrong with their brakes.

The trouble is that when we let our brakes go like that, all of a sudden we may have to make an emergency stop—and then we may find it rather embarrassing.

MOMENTUM AND FRICTION

Engineers say that if we realized what goes on in brakes we would see why we ought to keep them checked up. As they explain it, it's another story of momentum and friction, the same old forces we're always hearing about.

They say that when we get going we build up a certain energy in the form of momentum. Now when we want to stop, we have to absorb that energy. Scientists tell us we can't just destroy it because Nature never lets any of its energy be destroyed. We can only convert it into some other form of energy. What brakes really do is to convert speed-energy into heat energy. When we push down on the brakes we press the brake lining against the brake drums and that creates friction that changes the energy to heat; when we have changed all the speed-energy of heat, then we come to a stop.

Now modern brakes are about five times as powerful as our engines. That is, a hundred horsepower car will have about five hundred horsepower brakes. They can stop us pretty quickly even from high speeds. But when they do they simply change those speeds into a lot of heat awfully fast. The fact is we sometimes build up temperature in our brakes as high as 1400 degrees.

YOU HAVE TO PAY FOR IT!

It's easy to see that heat like that can cause a lot of trouble. Some of us think it's fun to rush up to sudden stops, but we might as well realize that we have to pay for that kind of fun in excessive brake wear.

It simply doesn't pay to build up brake heat a lot faster than it can be thrown off. And we certainly get hardly anything back in time saved.

For instance, if we're going thirty miles an hour our brakes can stop us in forty feet if they are all right; but it only takes them less than two seconds longer to stop us in twice that distance. How much better it would be, normally, to begin to apply the brakes a few seconds earlier and with gradually increasing pressure.

If we want to keep our brakes safe and sound it is important to remember what fast stops do to them. But it is just as important to remember that all stops make some heat in our brakes. That's what gradually wears down the linings and makes them give way little by little so that sooner or later they need to be tightened up.

So maybe it would be a good idea to keep on thinking of our cars as private transportation systems that can be kept under our control and be made to serve us with safety and satisfaction.

Progress Of Aviation In Fascist Italy

Imperialist Ambition Helps Development Of Far-Flung Aerial Net Work

(From A. Correspondent)

ROME (By Mail).

Statistics dealing with aviation in Italy are interesting. Fascist Aviation started in 1924. But today Italian air lines cover more than 16,000 kilometres over which from 35,000 to 40,000 passengers are carried every year besides 150 tons of mail and newspapers, another 150 tons of luggage and 160 tons of goods. Nor is this all. The commercial hydroplanes in use on Italy's air lines and the four or three-engined land planes are not only fast but some of the most comfortable and safest even when compared to those of the most progressive countries in the world. Some of them develop such high speeds as 250, 300 and 400 kilometres per hour.

Considering the Imperialist ambitions of the Fascist regime, of course, this development of aviation was of prime necessity and, accordingly, it received the earnest attention of Mussolini.

INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS

In 1929 Italian air lines were approximately the same as regards the distance flown over, but since then important international connections have been organized, such, for instance, those with Berlin and Munich in 1931, with Tirana in the same year, with Salonika and Zurich in 1932 and with Paris in 1935. In January of this year all Italian air lines, with the single exception of that between Rome and Zurich by way of Milan and Turin which is entrusted to the Societa Aviolinee, are united under the sole control of the Ala Littoria, a para-state organization.

As regards the development of colonial air lines, last year the Tripoli Bengasi line was prolonged as far as Alexandria and later when air lines were started in East Africa, the air route across Libya was followed to link up Italy with the most vital centres in Eritrea and Somaliland. It is needless to point out the part these air lines played in the Abyssinian campaign. But for the Italian 'planes the people of Abyssinia would have been free to-day.

PASSENGER SAFETY.

As regards the factor of safety the principle was followed that to guarantee the safety of passengers is not only the bounden duty of any air service but also the fundamental element of development and progress. Fascist civil aviation since its very origin in 1924, when the first convention was signed between the then Commissariate for Aeronautics and the Italian 'Aereo-Espresso' Company for the air line Brindisi-Athens-Istambul, holds a good record for safety among all commercial air lines. Past and present statistics afford convincing evidence of this fact. It suffices to quote those of recent date. For instance: Over 50,000 passengers conveyed by air in many thousand hours of flight along all Italian air routes, which, it must be admitted, owing to atmospheric conditions and the high mountains crossed are by no means among the most convenient and easy in Europe, only two accidents occurred. There is no room for doubt, therefore that both absolutely and relatively, travelling by air in Italy is safer than all other mean of transport including the most common and modest ones.

The organization of Italian air services and their successful development and progress implied an enormous amount of work and now that everything is running smoothly few people realize the efforts made by Italy. Over and above the improvement of aircraft construction due to the intelligent collaboration between those entrusted with directive functions and the specialized aircraft manufacturers, one must consider the technical work necessary to set up and bring up to date Italian aviation implying the building of air-ports, wireless installations, beacons, meteorological services, supplies, personnel, etc., the success of which was exclusively due to careful foresight, skill, accurate planning and organization coupled to the discipline and experience of aircraft crews.

But the story of aviation and of air travel is not expressed in words. Its literature and history are made up in the time-tables of an Aviation company and it is worth while referring to that of the Ala Littoria.

For instance it takes 42 hours of flight to reach Asmara from Italy by way of Tripoli, Bengasi, Cairo, Khartoum and Cassala. The 1,400 kilometres separating Rome from Paris, via Marseilles and Lyons can be flown over in less than 5 hours while the 1370 kilometres between Rome and Berlin are covered in slightly more than 6 hours including a halt at Venice and at Munich. The only observation or rather criticism that one can make is that so far there is no night flying in Italy and, therefore, not much time is gained for medium or short distances. This is only a question of time. Night flying on Central European air lines has proved successful although so far limited to mail services between regions and over flat country. There are several Italian air lines that leave or reach destination before or after daylight and night services could be organized without any difficulty.

THEY KNOW ALL!

Airways Officials Know Over Twenty Languages

In the present disturbed condition of the world, air transport offers a hope of improving conditions, for people and nations usually disagree as a result of misunderstanding.

This lack of knowledge can generally be eradicated by contact, for the more people see of each other the less likely they are to disagree.

Arising out of this, it is essential that the personnel responsible for the operation of air services should be able to speak, if possible, a variety of languages, and it may be of interest to know that in a recent census of the staff in the Cairo office of Imperial Airways it was found that the knowledge of languages of the staff embraced the following:

Afrikander, Arabic, Armenian, English, French, German, Greek Hindustani, Itlian, Japanese, Malay, Maltese, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish Sudanese, Swahili, Turkish, Urdu, Welsh and Yiddish.

Not only are they spoken, but in most instances can be written. The staff at many other offices are equally capable.

LIFE-SAVER!

Aeroplane's Humanitarian Role

An instance occurred last month where aviation was called upon to form a duty which on certain occasions might feasibly result in the saving of life.

A lady in Calcutta heard that her child who was with friends in Chittagong, was seriously ill. An aircraft was chartered by the lady from Indian National Airways, and was in the air about 35 minutes after the first phone call from Calcutta. The flight soon enabled the mother to be with her child and it is good to say that the last news heard was satisfactory.

BRITISH AVIATION

Interesting Newsreel Filmed

The American newsreel, "The March of Time," which is issued by the news magazine, "Time," recently made a short film, dealing with various aspects of British civil aviation.

This film shows the new 'Empire' flying-boats of Imperial Airways and the organization necessary for the operation of the Empire air routes, and is to be shown in hundreds if cinemas all over the world.

Interviews with Lord Swinton, the Secretary of State for Air, Major G. C. Tryon, the Postmaster General, and Sir Eric Geddes, the Chairman of the Imperial Airways, make the film doubly interesting.

THE MONTH AT THE KARACHI AIR-PORT

Many Interesting Visitors Pass Through The Aerial Gateway Of India

KARACHI, (By Mail).

The departuree of Croydon Monospar for Australia was one of the outstanding events of the month at the Karachi Air Port. Lord Sempbill flew back to England by K. L. M. as he was very anxious to study the "Automatic Pilot" which is a standard equipment on the K. L. M. machines. Due to some pressing engagements at home Lord Sampbill had to return immediately to London and his place was taken by Mr. Crocombe the assigner of the Monospar. It is not unlikely that Croydon Monospar will be fitted with a similar device when this aircraft is put on some regular service

CASUAL AVIATORS.

The month was noteworthy because of the number of casual aviators that passed through the Air Port during the month.

A new Air France twin engined plane of the Potez 62 type arrived at Drigh Road during the month. The machine has a cruising speed of about 180 miles per hour and carried nine passengers. It is intended to use a fleet of these machines on the Far East route and it is with a view to test the machine under sub-tropical conditions that the Potez has been sent to Karachi. Several tests flights have been made and some adjustments and minor changes have been carried out. It is stated that the machine would be put to some very strenuous tests before a certificate of commercial airworthiness is granted by the French Government.

A special inspector of the French Air Ministry is shortly expected at Karachi when the final tests will be carried out under his supervision. One of the tests would be to fly the machine using one engine only for a certain specified time. It is stated that the Air France has also placed for a fleet of their latest 22 seater. Do woitine to be used on London Marseilles route and after some time these big air liners will be sent East. These machines will have a cruising speed of about 200 m.p.h

AMERICAN MAGNATE.

Another flight that aroused more than usual interest was that of Mr. Ben Smith, the American air line magneto in his Wright cyclone-powered Vultee monoplane from London. It was merely a pleasure trip and Mr. Smith was accompanied by Mr. Town the pilot a Ground Engineer and another friend. According to the pilot the machine has a cruising speed of over 200 m.p.h. which is considered exceptional performance, especially when it is taken into account that it is a single engined machine and can carry 8 passengers. The cabin of the machine was nicely upholstered and the seats were quite comfortable and roomy. Besides there was a stretcher bed—one wonders whether for the tired pilot or the "airsick passenger." In any case it seemed from the general furnishing and arrangement of the interior of the cabin of the aircraft that the designer had not lost sight of the fact that comfort in air travel is one of the first demands of the air passengers of to-day and the air line that fails to cater for this demand is not likely to survive long.

The machine went as far as Jodhpur and the next morning started for Baghdad It seems that Mr. Smith had an important engagement at Baghdad, which he was very keen to keep. The complete unconcern with which these aviators talk about keeping appointment at Baghdad from Jodhpur is at times really amazing. Any one hearing them would surely get the impression that Baghdad was perhaps a locality in Jodhpur or perhaps its nearest suburb! No one would dream for a moment that a distance of about two thousand miles separates the two places!

UTERLAI AERODROME.

Mr. Chichaster piloting his Puss Moth came from New Zealand about the middle of September and left for London a week later.

Mr. Fairbairn, in a Dragon Fly passed through Karachi on his way to Australia from England. Mr. Fairbairn is a member of the Australian Parliament and according to the Press makes a practice of flying between the capital and his constituency.

The Aerodrome Officer, Karachi Air Port, paid a flying visit to Uterlai in a Gipsy Moth chartered from the Aero Club. The object of the visit was to inspect the night landing equipment, the route beacon and the power plant. Uterlai has now the illuminated wind "T", wind mill, velocity indicator, boundry lights and obstruction lights over and above the route. With all these equipments ready, Uterlai is now for the purpose of night landing one of the best equipped landing grounds on the route.

The Karachi Aero Club were busy with their usual instructional and cross-country flights and did 155 hours of flying during the month.

There were 73 arrivals at the Karachi Air Port during the month while 73 aircraft left here for other aerodromes.—United Press.

Restraint Order On Sadanand

Magistrate Reserves Decision On Application To Make Order Under Section 144 Permanent

Mr. Abbas Ali, Magistrate, Madras, resumed the hearing on Tuesday of the application of the Police for an order under Section 144, Cr. P. C. against Mr. S. Sadanand.

It will be remembered that an emergent order was passed previously prohibiting Mr. Sadanand from entering the premises of the Free Press of India (Limited).

This followed on the action of Mr. Sadanand in taking possession of the premises by force and putting a lock on them.

It is claimed that the Managing Agents are in the lawful occupation of these premises, and that, Mr. Sadanand has no longer any legal authority as Director of the Free Press, Ltd.

The Magistrate reserved his decision.

Director Since Start

Mr. V. Rajagopalachariar submitted that Mr. S. Sadanand had been the Director of the Free Press of India (Madras) Limited from the starting of the concern. According to the Articles of the Association of the firm, Mr. Sadanand was one of the original directors.

The various returns submitted to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies showed that Mr. Sadanand continued to be a director. Again Mr. Sadanand was a director of Publicity Limited, Madras, who were the managing agents of the Free Press of India (Madras) Limited. The last return of Publicity Limited submitted to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies in which Mr. Sadanand's name was not found had not yet been taken on record by the Registrar.

Servants Of Proprietors

Counsel submitted that the managing agents were after all the servants of the proprietors and it would not be open to them to say that they were in possession and would not give up possession to the owners. If the managing agents had any claims on the firm, they must go to a civil court to seek their remedy.

It might be that Mr. K. Santanam was the declared keeper of the Press but he was only a nominee of the Board of Directors of the Free Press of India (Madras), Limited, and he was made the nominee only for the purpose of declaration, as was evident from a resolution passed by the Board of Directors.

Mr. V. Rajagopalachariar further submitted that at the time the order under Sec. 144, Cr. P. C. was made, the full facts had not been placed before His Worship. It had not been denied by the other side that his client was a director of the Company. Mr. Sadanand, as Chairman of the Board of Directors had rightly or wrongly terminated the services of the Managing Agency and if there was anything illegal in it, it was for the managing agents to go to a court and establish their claims.

In conclusion, counsel submitted that whatever might have been the occasion for passing an emergent order, it was not proper that a director of the company should be restrained from having control over the company and requested the Court either to rescind the order passed on his client or so modify it that it would not affect his client.

Not In Possession

Mr. F. S. Vaz, appearing for Mr. K. Santanam, submitted that the issue before the Court was not to determine who was the rightful owner of the company.

The very notice that Mr. Sadanand put up at the premises showed that he was not in actual possession of the press and it was because he took the law into his own hands and locked the premises, that the Court had issued an order under Section 144 Cr. P. C. against Mr. Sadanand. No fresh materials had been placed before the Court, Counsel contended, for the Court either to rescind or modify the order. Emphasis was laid by the other side on the records produced from the office of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and on the fact that Mr. Sadanand was a director of the Free Press of India (Madras) Limited.

Counsel pointed out that it was not the function of the Registrar to decide issues, but he had simply to file the returns if they conformed to the regulations laid down by the Companies Act.

Agreement For 30 Years

Counsel next submitted that it was not true to say that the Board of Directors could terminate the services of the Managing Agents. The agreement stated that the agency was not terminable for 30 years unless for reasons of fraud, and in this instance there had been no mention of any fraud.

Mr. Vaz concluded by saying that no fresh facts had been brought to the notice of the Court to rescind the order made.

His Worship reserved orders.

STABBED WHILE TAKING A WALK

Railway Chargeman Victim Of Outrage Removed To Hospital

VILLUPURAM, Oct. 19.

A stabbing outrage occurred here this night the victim being Mr. J. Leene, fitter chargeman, employed in the Railway Loco shed.

It appears that Mr. Leene was walking along on the verandah in his residence with his baby when he was stabbed on the left side of his chest with a sharp instrument. Mr. Leene has been removed to Madras for being admitted into the General Hospital, Dr. Balasubramaniam of the South Indian Railway accompanied Mr. Leene.

Sub-Inspector Nagaratnam is investigating the matter.

Subsequently when the Trivandrum Express came here from Madras, Mr. Frank Leene, nephew of the victim, was found run over by the train, his left leg having been completely crushed. He was rendered first aid in the Railway Hospital and then removed to the local Government Hospital for treatment. Sub-Inspector Syed Ahmed of the Railway Police is investigating the matter.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS

MADRAS (By Mail.)

Mr. S. Satyamurti, M. L. A., President, Tamil Nadu Congress Committee in a statement to the press referring to City Municipal elections says:

I understand that in some divisions of the city, candidates who are opposing the Congress candidates are using Khadi-clad volunteers, National flags, and Congress slogans to promote their candidature. In one sense, I am glad because it is sincerest form of flattery. But it is also a fraud on the public.

Mr. Satyamurti appeals to the voters to show their disapproval of these tactics by ensuring the success of the official Congress candidates.—A. P.

MARKETING SOCIETY IN MADRAS

Govt. Gives Help To Newly-formed Body

MADRAS, Oct. 21.

A Provincial Co-operative Marketing Society was organised recently under the auspices of the Madras Provincial Co-operative Union and the first business meeting of the Board of Directors of the Marketing Society was held on Monday.

The meeting decided that the Society might, to begin with, tackle the question of certain agricultural products. Among those selected for immediate attention were potatoes and other root variety vegetables, oranges, plantains and mangoes among fruits, ghee, onions, garlic, chillies, jaggery, and pounded rice.

The Society will market these on behalf of the producers in the city of Madras to begin with. With this end in view arrangements are being made to open an office somewhere near Esplanade and also stalls and godowns in suitable places in the city.

It may be mentioned that the Government of Madras is encouraging the Society, as could be evidenced from the fact that the Government have not only given a money grant of Rs. 2,800 but also lent the services of a Sub-Deputy Registrar, a typist, two clerks and two peons free of charge to the Society.—United Press.

P. and O. and British India S. N. Co.'s crews afloat were pleasantly surprised by a radio message from the chairman, Sir Alexander Shaw announcing the abolition of the remainder of the salary cuts which were imposed in 1931.

SUSTAINS AND STRENGTHENS

—RESTORES TO HEALTH

IN convalescence, there is no food beverage comparable with "Ovaltine" for supplying the recuperative elements necessary to ensure the rapid return of health, strength and vitality.

Because of its supreme merit, "Ovaltine" is widely prescribed by doctors all over the world, and it is in regular use by the leading hospitals everywhere. No other food beverage has ever enjoyed such a world-wide popularity.

"Ovaltine" is a concentrated extraction, scientifically prepared from Nature's richest tonic foods. It combines the vitalizing and energy-giving properties of ripe barley malt and pure creamy cow's milk, together with valuable natural phosphatides and vitamins. This wealth of vital nourishment is unequalled for building up the depleted tissues and cells of the body and the nervous system.

Moreover, "Ovaltine" has a delicious flavour which makes it acceptable to the delicate palate.

There is nothing to equal "Ovaltine" for restoring health after illness, and its continued regular use will ensure the maintenance of vigorous health. But it must be "Ovaltine," which is 100 per cent. pure natural nourishment. Unlike imitations, "Ovaltine" does not contain any cheap ingredient such as household sugar, which is added to give bulk and to cheapen the manufacturing costs. Always insist on "Ovaltine."

OVALTINE
TONIC FOOD BEVERAGE

Remember that "Ovaltine" is packed in tins containing 4½, 9 and 18 ounces. Compare these weights with imitations. "Ovaltine" gives more in quantity—more in quality—therefore more in value.

N. Y. COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct 22

The cotton market displayed considerably colourless session in the absence of any scale down support and reports of favourable weather coupled with rumours that the co-operative association estimated the crop at 12,100,000 bales. Washington advices show that there is no prospect of Government crop loans should the present market trends continue.

Trading in March option commenced at 11.87 i.e. 3 points lower than previous closing. However the market later was forged upward by some speculative buying and trade demand and the market maintained yesterday's level i.e. 11.90.

New York cotton finally closed at 11.87 with a decline of 3 points for March delivery.

SELECTIVE BUYING OF INDUSTRIAL SHARES

Numerous Appreciable Advances

(SPECIAL CABLE)

LONDON, Oct 22

Stock Exchange: Despite one of the heaviest settlements experienced for several years the markets were active in nearly all departments. Selective buying of industrials resulted in numerous appreciable advances.

Coppers again shone brilliantly; oils were active though movements were fractional.

Among commodities tin was easy on fears of a collapse of restriction and then it became steadier. Wheat was easy on bearish Argentine weather and weak Argentine markets.

Foreign exchanges: French francs were weak on political outlook but steadied sharply on intervention of the control.

Wall Street was irregularly low.

Co-operatives And Spot House Selling In Cotton

Considerable Improvement In Crop

CONTINUATION OF LIQUIDATION

BOMBAY, Oct. 22.

On Wednesday the New York cotton futures market ruled quiet on increased selling by co-operative association and by spot houses. The offerings were absorbed by trade.

It is reported that crop prospects have improved considerably and the co-operative association is estimating total yield 12,100,000 Bales.

The New York cotton futures market opened barely steady. Orders in the early stages were quite evenly divided between hedge selling and trade buying. Prices declined on long liquidation and foreign selling of late months, then rallied on mill price-fixing. Some nervousness was evident regarding cold wave on the north of the Western Belt apparently moving Eastward. Prices again reacted on renewed hedge selling and co-operative selling. Japanese selling was also noticed and there were rumours that Co-operative Association is estimating the crop at 1,21,00,000 Bales.

The weekly weather report issued on Wednesday states:—

"Widespread unneeded rain which fell again in the Eastern belt retarded opening of picking and damaged open cotton. There has latterly been some improvement but sunshine is wanted badly. Central and Western portions are largely dry. Picking and ginning are progressing very favourably with much completed except in the North-West Texas."

CROP PROSPECTUS

At the moment the market is under the influence of favourable weather and increased crop ideas. We have had favourable weather during the month and absence of any early killing frost is likely to show some increase in the total crop but we do not look for any material increase. The Statistical position is strong and a small increase is not likely to have any important effect on prices.

NEW YORK MARKET.

The New York cotton futures market opened at a decline of one point with March 11.95. But under scattered buying prices improved 3 points from the opening level and March was quoted 11.98 which was the highest level. Later prices declined 9 points from the highest level and March was quoted 11.89 which was the lowest level. The market closed at a net decline of 4 to 11 points. Spot cotton prices were 7 points down at 12.25c per lb.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

The New Orleans cotton futures market was quiet and closed at a decline of 7 to 5 points. Spot cotton prices were reduced 5 points at 12.25c. per lb.

LIVERPOOL MARKET

The Liverpool cotton futures market opened at a rise of 3 points with March 6.70. Local operators supported the market on firmness of Alexandria advices. Offerings were light. Later on there was some American selling and the market closed quiet unchanged to one point up. Middling American spot cotton prices advanced 4 points at 7d.

INDIAN COTTON.

East Indian cotton futures market was fairly steady and closed unchanged. At the close October was quoted 5.44, and March 5.42.

EGYPTIAN COTTON.

Egyptian cotton futures market was fairly steady with improved buying. Sakels futures closed 11 to 2 points higher with Spot cotton 13 points up at 11.03d.. Uppers futures gained 4 to 5 points.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET.

The Alexandria cotton futures market was firm and active with heavy buying. Sakels futures advanced 33 to 24 points and Ashmouni futures were 8 to 14 points higher.

Messrs. Devkaran Nanjee have received to-day the following cable advices from Foreign friends:—

Liverpool:—"Larger crop ideas causing liquidation but trade good buyers on declines."

Liverpool:—"Some caution necessary owing absence short interest and fairly large long account but lessening hedge pressure expanding trade and strong satistical position will lead to higher prices."

London:—"Expecting increase of crop estimates. Market is likely to decline."

New York:—"Market affected unfavourably by reports of co-operative estimate crop at 12,100,000. Some outsiders liquidation. Hedge-selling less active. Think decline is only temporary."

New York:—"Liquidation by disappointed longs. Good trade demand. Accumulations at a moderate decline are quite likely to result profitably."

Messrs. Chunilal Mehta and Co., Ltd. have received to-day the following cable information from their Foreign Friends:—

Liverpool.—Bullish sentiment temporarily restrained by private reports stating that acreage and crop underestimated. Average crop ideas appear to have been revised upwards to 1,17,00,000 bales.

New York.—Co-operatives and spot house selling absorbed by Far East and trade on scale.

New York.—There is a report current that crop prospects improving considerably. Liquidation continuing. Market acting disappointingly.

Messrs. Patel Brothers have received the following cable from their Liverpool friends.

Larger crop ideas causing liquidation but trade good buyers on declines.

Messrs. Bruel and Co., have received the following cable from Messrs. Reynolds and Gibson Liverpool:—

Cotton:—Some caution necessary owing to absence of short interest and fairly large long account but lessening hedge pressure, expanding trade and strong statistical position will lead to higher prices.

Copper:—Quota raised to 85 per cent; stocks reduced over 25,000 tons last month; expect higher £42/5.

Lead:—American price raised to 165, demand very good. £18/8/9.

Spelter:—Increased speculative interest causing price to advance.

Rubber:—Still expect January March or January June quota be increased by 5 per cent to 70 per cent; meeting of International Rubber Regulation Committee on 27th 7 15/16.

Tin:—No agreement Siam International Tin Committee meeting; next meeting in Paris on November 5th.

BOMBAY COTTON

Bombay, Oct. 22.

Following a decline of 6 points in New York cotton futures the local market opened to-day at Rs. 221 for Broach April-May delivery.

At the opening there was scattered selling which resulted in a small decline of annas four and prices were quoted at Rs. 220/12.

There is a squeeze in Osaka Sampin market and to-day's closing being 250 points up, there was improved enquiry in the local market and prices advanced to Rs. 221/12.

American advices are quiet indicating small decline. It is likely that the local market will rule easy for some time and we think it safe to await some decline.

The Liverpool market opened quiet at a decline of 3 points. In the local market there was some scattered selling and Broach A/M. delivery was quoted at Rs. 221/4. The market closed at 5-30 p.m. as under:—

Active Enquiry For Cotton Mill Shares

Tata Steels Steady

PROFESSIONAL UNLOADING

BOMBAY: October 22.

The local Share Bazar was open to-day for one hour and during this period there was active enquiry for Cotton Mill Shares, which imparted better feeling in the market.

The improved enquiry for Cotton Cloth is encouraging demand for Mill Shares. Attention of our readers was drawn regarding active enquiry for cloth and in view of Diwali larger sales are anticipated.

Professional Operators are now gradually liquidating their holdings of Steel Shares and they have diverted their attention to Cotton Mill Shares. There was utter absence of any important buying in Steel Shares.

At the opening there were some unfounded rumours of a threat of a strike at Jamshedpur, but active demand for Bombay Dyeing Shares influenced moderate enquiry for Tata Steel Shares. At the opening Tata Steel Deferred Shares were quoted at Rs. 795 and improved to Rs. 807. At this level there was some unloading by Professional Operators, which resulted in a small setback.

Among Mills Bombay Dyeing was the chief centre of activity. It was talked on the floor of the Exchange that, under the new trade agreement there will be increased duties on imports of cloth. It is too early to rely on such manufactured rumours and think it advisable to secure profits on strong markets.

The Market is becoming overbought and we think it risky to follow the advance at the moment.

Satyamurti Pays His Homage To Jawahar

ANY ORGANISATION WHICH CAN COMMAND THE SERVICES OF A MAN LIKE HIM IS BOUND TO ACHIEVE ITS PURPOSE

MADRAS, (By Mail).

Mr. S. Satyamurti, President, Tamil Nadu Congress Committee in the course of a statement says:

I cannot find words adequate enough to express the gratitude of the people, of Congressmen, and women, Congress workers and of myself, to the President of the Indian National Congress, for this strenuous tour throughout the Province. I am fully convinced that this visit and this tour have deeply stirred the feelings of the people, have endeared them still more to the Indian National Congress, and have enabled the message of the Congress to reach the people of the Tamil Nadu in a direct and authentic manner. On behalf of the Tamil Nadu Provincial Congress Committee, and of the men and women of the Tamil Nadu who flocked in their tens of thousands to hear him, I should like publicly to express our most profound and sincere gratitude to the President of the All-India Congress for this great service to the cause of Indian freedom.

HOMAGE TO JAWAHAR.

Proceeding Mr. Satyamurti says:

Of Pandit Jawaharlal himself and of his work during this tour, I cannot write in detail publicly. But this I want to say that any organisation which can command the services of a man like him is bound to achieve its purpose. I am not now talking of him, as a mere politician or even as a Congress Leader, but as a man he has shown great qualities of head and heart. In spite of his strenuous programme which must endear him to all those who came in contact with him the way in which he dealt with the vast crowds who came to receive him was remarkable for its courage, tact and understanding of human nature. He never spared himself. Our average day, I think, was between 18 and 20 hours. Often we had our breakfast between 1 and 2 p.m. and went to bed between 2 and 3 a.m.; in the early hours of the morning, this was a normal arrangement. He bore it all with a cheerfulness which was well worth our admiration. He likes crowds. Crowds like him, and particularly women and children. I have never seen more women attend any public meeting in Tamil Nadu, at any time than at his meetings. He speaks straight to them, and they understand and appreciate his message.

THOSE "SELF-RESPECTORS."

There is one aspect of this tour, on which I should like to say a word. Throughout Tamil Nadu, he was given a right royal reception. But, in Gobichettipalayam, half a dozen men came with their black flags, but when challenged to appear and answer questions, they slunk away. In Negapatam about a dozen people came with black flags as we entered. The car was moving slowly. Pandit Jawaharlal jumped out of the car and ran towards the self-respectors asking them to come up and talk to him. They all began to run away. One man was caught and brought near the car. The feeling of the people was so intense that Panditji had to give all his protection to the self-respector to come up and speak to him. A vigorous conversation ensued between Panditji and the self-respectors which left the self-respectors confounded and confused. I give this only as an example of his handling similar situations. Julius Caesar is made to say by William Shakespeare:

"Danger and I are two lions littered in one day
And I the elder and the more terrible of the two."

That can appropriately be said of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

CONGRESS AND SOCIALISM.

On the effect of this great tour, on Congress opinion and Congress work in the province, I have no manner of doubt that it will strengthen the Congress work and render sound, Congress opinion on all burning topics of the day. On the supreme question of Socialism of which Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru is perhaps to-day the ablest and the sincerest exponent he has taken care to say, on every public platform that, Socialist as he is, he is mainly working for the complete Independence of India first and foremost, because without that Independence, Socialism is impossible in the country. He has, therefore, invited Socialists to cooperate with the Congress in its fight for freedom.

Secondly, in spite of its enemies and candid friends, Pandit Jawaharlal has made no secret of the fact that the Congress in putting up candidates for the provincial legislatures is doing it in right earnest and is determined to win. He has appealed to the people in unambiguous terms to vote for the Congress candidates, for he is convinced, and he has said so, that the ensuing elections will be a fight between the Government and its allies on the one hand and the Congress on the other. Therefore there can be no doubt that Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru cannot be exploited by our enemies for any purpose. As President of the Congress, he is going to use all his resources and strength to ensure success for Congress candidates throughout the country.

WHY WE GO INTO THEM.

On the attitude of the Congress towards the New Constitution he has made the position of the Congress perfectly clear, that we go into the legislatures not to work the Act, nor to co-operate with the Government, or with the British Imperialism. We go there to see that the Act is replaced at the earliest possible moment by a New Agreed Constitution on the basis of Purna Swaraj. On the comparatively minor question, whether Congressmen should accept office or not, he has also made the position perfectly clear. He is against it. He also knows my position in the matter and

ATTACK ON WORKING JOURNALIST

Protest Against Action Of Assembly Speaker On "A. B. Patrika"

LAHORE, (By Mail).

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Punjab Journalists' Association held this evening at "Tribune" office, Mr. Kalinath Roy, President of the Association presiding, the following resolutions were adopted:—

The Executive Committee of the Punjab Journalists' Association view with deep concern the action of the President of the Indian Legislative Assembly in cancelling the Press Gallery Ticket of the representative of the "Amrit Bazar Patrika" because the said journal had made certain editorial comments concerning the official conduct of the President of the Assembly. The Committee are of the opinion that the vicarious punishment inflicted by the Assembly President on the Simla representative of the "Amrit Bazar Patrika" is not only a most unwarranted interference with the legitimate rights of the Press but amounts to a wholly improper attack on the interests of working journalists who cannot be held responsible for the editorial policy of a newspaper. The committee earnestly hope that the President will take the earliest opportunity of cancelling his order.

PREMCHAND.

The Executive Committee of the Punjab Journalists' Associat on plae on record their sense of profound sorrow at the premature death of Munshi Premchand, who was rightly regarded as not only a story writer of rare literary genius but a pioneer in his own department of creative fiction. The Committee are of the opinion that every encouragement should be given to the movement to commemorate his great literary achievement.

The Executive Committee of the Punjab Journalists' Association offer their heartfelt condolences to Mr. Mohd Yusuf, Joint Editor of the "Inquilab" on the death of his revered father.—A. P.

SIND'S ROAD PROBLEM

Five Year Plan Involving Expenditure Of 5 Lakhs Undertaken

KARACHI, October 22.

The meeting of the Sind Advisory Communication Board opened here this morning with an address by the Governor, Sir Shah Nawaz Bhutto presided.

In his address the Governor said the cry for roads in Sind had been so loud that it had penetrated into the unreceptive ear of Government and he trusted that the new Government would devote more time, attention and money to it. The Board would examine the programme involving an expenditure of thirty lakhs of runees spread over five years.

The proposals were directed towards increasing the facilities for conveyance of produce and passengers to railway stations. The roads in the cotton and sugarcane areas had become a matter of immediate importance. The difficulty encountered in making roads in Sind were that in certain parts no metal was available, while at others the metal was of unsatisfactory nature. It was expected, as a result of the experimental work now being carried on, they would evolve something definitely useful.—A. P.

MALERKOTLA'S CLIMB-DOWN

No Maltreatment For Emigrants Returning To State

LAHORE, Oct. 21.

In the course of a 'firman' issued by the Nawab of Malerkotla with regard to the grievances of the Mahajarins who are camping in Lahore for the last ten days, his Highness said that he was pleased to learn that the Mahajarins had after negotiations decided to return to the State. He assured them that their reasonable demands will be sympathetically considered.

The Mahajarins on their return to the State will not be subjected to any maltreatment because of their conduct and will enjoy the rights and privileges or the citizens of the State.—United Press.

PROTEST AGAINST PUNITIVE POLICE TAX

Refund Demanded, For Money Realized In Lahore Village

LAHORE, October 19.

The village headmen and other residents of the villages, Gaddoki, Green Kot, Ratluhi, Kalanand Katluhi Khurd Tehsil, in the Kasur District, Lahore have sent an application to the Hon. Home Member to the Government of Punjab, in which they have claimed a refund of Rs. 5,129 and odd, said to have been realised in excess from them, on account of the Punitive Police Tax.

The villages have put up their case on the following grounds:—

In 1924 and 1925, the police force sanctioned for the aforesaid Punitive Police Post remained, stationed at Luliani Police station for more than 4 months and was busy in petrolling the whole area in the jurisdiction of Luliani police station. From October 1924 to February 1925 the said Police Force was not quartered in these villages, therefore the cost of this period could not be imposed on the villagers. In support of this contention they have quoted sections 15 (1) and 15 (2) of the General Police Act 1861.

The applicants further contend that in the first year one Sub-Inspector of Police and one Head Constable did not join the punitive police post for the periods of 6 and 4 months respectively but their full pay had been imposed and collected from them.

It might be recalled that a punitive police post was quartered at village Makhi Khurd Tehsil Kasur in 1922-'23 for 4 years Government collected Rs. 8,600 in excess of the actual expenditure borne by the Government which she had to refund in October 1926 on account of the press agitation started for this purpose.

Organise Resistance To This Frontal Attack

G. I. P. RAILWAY WORKERS' CALL TO FEDERATION

The Secretary of the G. I. P. Railway Workers' Union writes:—

The Annual Meeting of the Union was held on Sunday the 18th instant under the presidentship of Mr. Khedgikar. In the course of his speech Mr. Khedgikar described in detail the miserable and ever-worsening condition of the Railway workers. He said that their salvation lay in complete Unity amongst themselves.

Mr. Chaudhari read the annual audited accounts of the Union which were adopted.

Various amendments moved to the old constitution were also unanimously adopted. The following resolutions were passed.

CALL TO FEDERATION.

1. Whereas the Railway Board has launched a frontal attack on the already miserable standard of living of Railway workers; whereas there is no justification for the proposed retrenchment off 4,000 Railway Employees; whereas mass resistance by all Railway Workers alone is capable of checking the new onslaught and whereas Railway Workers have indicated the r readiness to resist the attack, this meeting of G. I. P. Railway workers calls upon the leadership of the All-India Railwaymen's Federation immediately to convene an All-India Railway Workers' Conference for the purpose of consolidating their forces effectively to resist the attack of the Railway Board.

REPRESSION CONDEMNED.

2. This conference condemns the repressive policy of the Government, particularly the internment, externment, detentions, suppression of working-class organisations, youth and other anti-imperialist organisations, suppression of the right of the press by demanding heavy securities, exclueding entry of redical literature in India, etc.

"This conference demands the release of all political prisoners and repeal of all repressive legislations such as Emergency Powers Act, Press Act, Trade Dispute Act, Criminal Law Amendment Act and other anti-working class legislations in India.

FIGHT FASCIST MENACE.

3. "This meeting of the G. I. P. Railway Workers condemns the deliberate war preparations by the different Imperialist Countries and also their manoeuvres to strengthen the Fascist Rule in Europe with a view to smash the democratic elements in those countries.

This meeting, therefore, calls upon the masses of the World to organise, agitate and form a United Front against the growing danger of Fascism and Imperialist aggression on Soviet Russia and supports the grim struggle of the Spanish Government for checking the Fascist danger.

SUPPORT TO AMBERNATH WORKERS.

4. "This meeting strongly supports the struggle of the Ambernath Match Factory Workers against reduction in their wages, and condemns strongly the attempts of the authorities to suppress the struggle of the workers for realising their most legitimate demands for the restoration of wagecuts."

The following Office Bearers were elected for the ensuing year.

President—S. H. Jhabvalla.

General Secretary—R. A. Khedgikar.

Assistant Secretary—D. S. Valdya.

Divisional Secretaries—Z. R. Chaudhari, D. L. Pathak, Abdul Razak, P. L. Ghanekar, Ajodhyaprasad G. D. Sane.

Treasurer, D. B. Shinde.

RAILWAY INQUIRY AND TARIFF

S. Indian Chamber's Plea For Extension Of Scope

MADRAS, Oct. 22.

The South Indian Chamber of Commerce has addressed to the Railway Board New-Delhi expressing its d sappointment to learn that the terms of reference of the Railway Inquiry Committee do not include the examination of the tariff from the point of view of country's economic progress and requesting a suitable extension of the scope of inquiry.

The Chamber has also addressed a communication to the Government of India, Commerce Department, expressing regret at the Government's decision without consulting the Assembly to continue the Ottawa agreement indefinitely. The Chamber states that as a transitory measure the agreement might have being continued for a definite and short period during which time the conclusion of a new agreement would have been expedited.

The present procedure says, the Chamber, is definitely against the letter and spirit of the Assembly's verdict.—United Press.
